The Victor's New Style Catalogue

Our customers and dealers continue to be enthusiastic over the Victor's radical departure—the first real alphabetical catalogue ever issued, and which is not only a catalogue, but something of a musical dictionary as well.

It is everywhere pronounced a very great improvement over the old form, many declaring it to be the most valuable and unique catalogue ever issued by any corporation.

A Catalogue Without Indexes or Page Numbers!

It will be observed that the new catalogue has no indexes—or rather, it is all index,—every title, subject, singer, organization and composer being in its proper place, with all the records in each class set underneath the subject heading; and each with its number, size and price printed plainly after the title,—and in every case where a double-faced record is listed both titles are given. For example, take double-faced record No. 16908. This appears first under the A's, as follows:

Alexander's Ragtime Band (Berlin)	Collins and Harlan	16908	10	.75
The Oceana Roll (Lewis-Dennis)	Eddie Morton

And this record will also be found under the O's, with titles reversed, thus:

Oceana Roll, The (Lewis-Dennis)	Eddie Morton	16908	10	.75
Alexander's Ragtime Band (Berlin)	Collins and Harlan

It will be noticed that each title appears in its proper alphabetical order, with the title of the selection on the other side of the record indented and printed in italic type to keep the alphabetical column perfectly clear.

Method of Listing Under Subject Headings.

In so complete a catalogue some records are listed several times under various headings, and under these subject headings it has been found necessary to list double-faced records in a different way, as follows:

SCOTCH SONGS

Comin' Thro' the Rye—Edith Helena and Ye Banks and Braes—Henry Burr	16162	10	.75
Flow Gently, Sweet Afton—Miller and Ould Plaid Shawl—Henry Burr	17386	10	.75
I'm Wearing Awa'—Wells and Daddy (Behrend) Elizabeth Wheeler	17203	10	.75
Jock o' Hazeldean—John Young and Scots, Wha' Hae'—Reinald Werrenroth	16961	10	.75

The two selections in this case being set on the same line (the second title in italic type) and divided by the symbol and.

Alphabetical Plan Preserved in All Cases.

To show how this plan preserves the alphabetical arrangement take this example:

It will be noticed that the operatic titles are all in the left column in alphabetical order. If the opposite side is also an opera air in English, then the selections are reversed and repeated further down the column (see Carmen and Trovatore airs), to give the second title its own proper position.

Possible Errors—Suggestions Invited.

Because of the great labor involved in compiling so comprehensive a catalogue, some mistakes occasionally occur. The editor begs to thank those who have called attention to errors and suggested various changes. Corrections or suggestions for further improvement of the next edition or letters on any subject pertaining to the Victor or Victor Records will be gladly received. Just address Victor Catalogue Editor, Camden, N. J.

ABOTT, BESSIE, Soprano

COPY'T DUPONT

ABOTT

Bessie Abott began her musical career a few years ago in light opera, and although in a measure successful, she was ambitious and determined to study for grand opera. After some years' work she made her début at the Paris Opéra in Romeo and Juliette with much success. Engagements in various European cities followed and in 1908 the soprano was secured by the Metropolitan in New York where she remained several seasons before returning to Europe. Last season she sang in the brilliant revival of Robin Hood.

Miss Abott's voice is pure and sweet, her tones possessing the freshness of youth, the upper notes being exquisite in their beauty and clearness.

Opera in five acts; text by Scribe; music by Meyerbeer. Produced Paris, 1865; London, 1865; first N. Y., 1865. Revived in 1906 at the Metropolitan, with Caruso.

L'Africaine tells of the adventures of Vasco di Gama, the explorer, who is betrothed to Inez, daughter of the King of Portugal. The King tries to marry his daughter to Don Pedro, telling her that the explorer has been shipwrecked, but Vasco suddenly appears with two slaves, Selika and Nelusko, whom he found off the coast of a strange land. Vasc when the Council refuses to furnish him with a ship to explore the unknown country, denounces their parsimony and is ordered to prison. To save him, Inez consents to wed Don Pedro, who takes his wife and the slaves and sails away to find the land sought by the explorer. Don Pedro's ship is wrecked on the coast of India through the treachery of Nelusko, and most of the crew massacred. Vasco, who has followed them, becomes fascinated with Selika, who proves to be a Queen of India, but just as he is about to wed her he hears the voice of Inez and deserts the Queen for his first love. Selika, concealing her feelings, sends the lovers back to Spain, then kills herself with the blossoms of the poisonous mancanilla tree, and Nelusko, finding her body, himself inhales the deadly perfume.

AÏDA (Ah-ee'-dah) (All records ore in Itolion unless otherwise noted)

Opera in four acts. Text translated from Locle by Ghislanzoni; music by Verdi. First produced in Cairo, 1871; Milan, 1872; Paris, 1876; London, 1876; N. Y., 1873.

Aida, daughter of Amonasro, King of Ethiopia, has been captured by the Egyptians and is a slave at Memphis, where she and the young soldier Rhadames, have fallen in love with each other. Rhadames goes to the Egyptian war, and during his absence the King's daughter, Amneris, discovers the attachment and is furious, as she herself loves Rhadames.

Rhadames returns, covered with glory and bringing many prisoners, among them Amonasro, Aida's father. The King releases all the prisoners except Amonasro, and bestows his daughter on the unwilling Rhadames.

In the next scene Amonasro forces his daughter to persuade Rhadames to become a traitor. The latter's love for Aida and his distaste for the approaching union with Amneris lead him to consent. Amneris, however, has overheard the plot, and after vainly trying to induce Rhadames to abandon Aida, in a jealous rage she denounces him as a traitor, and he is condemned to be buried alive. When the vault is sealed he discovers Aida, who has concealed herself there that she might die with him, and the lovers slowly suffocate.

ALDA, FRANCES, Soprano (Ahl'-doh)

ALDA

Frances Alda was born in Christ Church, New Zealand, twenty-eight years ago, but has spent much of her life in Paris. She studied singing with Mme. Marchesi in Paris for ten months, and then made a début at the Opéra Comique in Paris in 1904. Four years later she came to New York, making her first appearance here as Gilda in Rigoletto, and during her three years at the Metropolitan has sung a number of rôles with marked success, including Desdemona in the great revival of Otello with Leo Slezak, in which her protrayal of the devoted and injured wife attracted much favorable mention. Of late Mme. Alda has been devoting herself to concert work, occasionally filling special opera engagements. During the present season she has returned as a regular member of the Metropolitan Company.

This soprano exhibits a rich and cultivated voice in the records she has made for the Victor. The airs from Madam Butterfly, Otello, Loreley, Manon and Falstaff are especially interesting because of the great success this artist has made in these operas, while in the Alda-Caruso Miserere record, her dramatic singing of Leonora's music is highly effective.

Mme. Alda now makes Victor records exclusively.

AMATO, PASQUALE, Baritone (Ah-moh'-toh)

COPY'T MISHKIN AMATO

Pasquale Amato, one of the most popular baritones ever heard in opera in America, was born thirty-three years ago in Naples and belongs to one of the best families of that city. Destined by his parents for a civil engineer, he had studied singing merely as an amateur, but his friends were so enthusiastic over his splendid vocal qualities that he was strongly urged to enter the Naples Conservatory. After three years there, he made his début at the Bellini Theatre in 1900, as Germont. He early gained a reputation which reached the South American impresarios and was soon engaged for Buenos Aires, where he met Toscanini. It was at the latter's suggestion that he went to Milan and sang for Mr. Gatti-Casazza, who was then the director-general of the Scala Opera. Mr. Gatti-Casazza immediately engaged him, and he became a prime favorite.

Four years ago he was engaged for the Metropolitan Opera House, where he made a deep impression on his first appearance; and since then his popularity has been steadily growing. One of his greatest rôles is Amfortas in Parsifal, which he sings with great beauty of voice and impressiveness of manner. He has also sung the rôle of Kurwenal in Tristan und Isolde, and one of his latest successes is his remarkable creation of the rôle of the Sheriff in Puccini's Girl of the Golden West. Amato sings only for the Victor.

BIELING

MURRAY

PORTER

HOOLEY

This popular organization is composed of four singers well known to Victor audiences (John Bieling, Billy Murray, Steve Porter, Wm. F. Hooley), and who have had a long and successful experience in the making of talking machine records. In their renditions of popular songs of the day and humorous specialties they are unequaled.

The American Quartet makes disc records exclusively for the Victor.

ANCONA, MARIO, Baritone (Ahn-koh'-nah)

COPY'T DUPONT ANCONA

Perfect phrasing of difficult passages, a remarkably even and rich quality of voice, superb acting as Rigoletto, Germont, Tonio and Escamillo—these are some of the reasons for the success of this sterling baritone.

The pleasure of listening to such a voice as this should be within the reach of every music lover in America. The Victor has, therefore, recorded some of Ancona's most famous numbers, and the records are superb in every way.

ARRAL, BLANCHE, Soprano

This gifted soprano was born in Liege, where, at the age of ten, she won the first prize in her class for singing and piano. After three years at the Conservatoire in Paris, she made her début at the Opéra Comique in Mignon, at the astonishing age of fifteen! After three years of success in Paris, the young soprano made a tour of Europe, followed by a journey around the world.

Mme. Arral has given the Victor a number of very interesting records, including her favorite number, the intricate "Bird Waltz," by Varney, in which she imitates the twitter of birds.

BACHAUS, WILHELM, Pianist

BACHAUS

The Victor announces with much pleasure a number of pianoforte reproductions by one of the greatest pianists of Europe, who in these records gives conclusive proof that the wonderful technical skill ascribed to him by the English and German critics has not been exaggerated.

Herr Bachaus was born in Leipsic in 1884, and entered the Conservatoire at the age of ten, studying under Reckendorf and afterwards with d'Albert. His first public appearance, in 1900, was an overwhelming success, and his rendering of the works of Beethoven, Chopin, and Liszt were pronounced marvelous for a youth of sixteen. This artist has of late years been an especial favorite with London audiences, and has given more than twenty-five recitals at Queen's Hall, which is invariably filled to the doors with his admirers. His first American tour was a highly successful one.

Herr Bachaus has chosen for his first Victor records several works of wide popularity by famous composers, and these records are faithful reproductions of the art of a great pianist.

BAKER, ELSIE, Contralto (For other duets see "Duets, Vocal")

BAKER

This young contralto has become one of the most valued members of the Victor vocal staff, her fine voice and excellent diction having been greatly admired by Victor owners.

Miss Baker, who is a pupil of Dr. W. W. Gilchrist, of Philadelphia, and Oscar Saenger, of New York, is now soloist at the Madison Avenue Reformed Church, New York City.

The singer's recent tour of the Middle West in concert was a great success, and she was afterward engaged for the nine weeks' spring tour of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra.

BALALAIKA ORCHESTRA, Russian Imperial Court (Bal-lah-lie-'kah)

The concerts of this wonderful Russian orchestra were the sensational event of a recent musical season, and the perfect ensemble and exquisite tone production of these players were enjoyed by many thousands of delighted hearers.

The balalaika is a primitive folk instrument with a tone similar to that of a mandolin, and is at present the most famous instrument in Russia. Every regiment has its balalaika orchestra, and the music on the Czar's yacht during the recent stay at Cowes was a balalaika band. This instrument is a kind of guitar, with only three strings, being made in several sizes, from that of a mandolin to something near a double bass.

Largely through the efforts of Mr. Andreeff, the balalaika, which had been much neglected, has now been elevated into its proper place as the distinctively national instrument of his country.

These records, which were made under the personal direction of the conductor, Mr. Andreeff, exhibit well the striking effects produced by these gifted players.

NOTE.—Complete information about any band record in this list—such as the full title, composer, contents of medleys, etc.—if not given here, can always be found under the title of the selection in its alphabetical place. For example, look for the first selection under "Adagio," and you will see that it is the composer's Sixth Symphony, Opus 74, and that it is part of the fourth and last movement that Mr. Pryor has played. Like many other records, this selection is listed in several different places—under "Tschaikowsky," under "Pathetique," and under "Symphonies," and it is obviously impossible to print complete information in all of these places. For contents of Medleys see "Medleys."

Band records for dancing the new dances—Bostons, Hesitations, Tangos, One-Steps, Maxixes, Trots, etc., will be found under "Dance Records."

BARBIERE DI SIVIGLIA (Bahr-beay'-reh dee See-veel'-yah) (In Italian)

Barber of Seville, comic opera in two acts; text by Sterbini, a Roman poet; music by Rossini. Produced Rome, 1816; London, 1818; N. Y. 1825. First called "Almaviva" to distinguish it from Paisiello's "Barber."

The plot of Barber is very simple. Count Almaviva loves Rosina, the ward of Dr. Bartolo, a crusty old bachelor, who secretly wishes to marry her himself. Almaviva persuades the village barber, Figaro, to arrange a meeting for him, and gains entrance to the house disguised as a dragoon, but is arrested by the guardian. Not discouraged, he returns, pretending to be a substitute for Rosina's music teacher, who, he says, is ill. The appearance of the real music master, Don Basilio, spoils this plan, and the Count retreats for the second time, having, however, arranged a plan for elopement. Bartolo finally arouses Rosina's jealousy by pretending that the Count loves another, and she promises to forget him and marry her guardian. When the time for the elopement arrives she meets the Count, intending to reproach him, but he convinces her of the base plot of Bartolo, and the lovers are wedded by a notary, just as Bartolo arrives with officers to arrest the Count.

BATTISTINI, MATTIA, Baritone

BATTISTINI

Battistini is one of the few great artists whom American impresarios have not succeeded in luring away from Europe. It is said that his dread of the ocean voyage alone has caused him to refuse brilliant offers from New York. In Russia, where he has sung regularly for more than twenty years, in Spain and in his native Italy, he is highly regarded because of the sheer beauty of his voice, his exquisite, warm, true Italian style, and the dramatic force of his acting. Although he is not a young man, he seems still in his prime, his upper notes being wonderful, his high A being taken with the apparent ease of a tenor.

The recent triumph of this great baritone at Covent Garden was to be expected after his successes on the Continent, where he was pronounced by the critics to be one of the greatest artists of the time.

Battistini is a warm friend of Massenet, and it is said that the composer changed the music of Werther to accommodate it to the baritone's range of voice. Battistini's impersonations of Don Giovanni, Rigoletto, Mephisto, Renato and Lionel are famous ones.

It is with pleasure that we are able to offer nine splendid solos by this singer, besides three selections from Ernani, made with the assistance of artists and chorus of La Scala, Milan, and duets from Don Giovanni and Thais.

BAYES-NORWORTH

PHOTO WHITE
BAYES AND NORWORTH

One of the Victor's important engagements is that of Bayes and Norworth, who, with their inimitable foolery and clean fun, their admirable imitations and clever and witty songs, have become in a very short time two of the greatest favorites on the American stage.

Miss Bayes is the life of every production with which she is connected, and gives a zest to every moment she is on the stage, while Jack Norworth is an unusually clever comedian and singer, besides being a song writer of note.

This talented pair have sung for the Victor some of their greatest successes and the records are among the most entertaining in the catalogue.

BEDDOE, DANIEL, Tenor

Mr. Beddoe, who is a native of Wales, came to this country in 1887, and settled in Pittsburgh. It was not until 1903 that his voice attracted the attention of Walter Damrosch at a concert given by the New York Symphony Orchestra, when several local vocalists were chosen to sing numbers from Meistersinger.

BEDDOE

Other engagements which followed were with the New York Oratorio Society, in Strauss' Taillefre, Dvorak's Stabat Mater, and Judas Maccabeus; with the Apollo Club of St. Louis; Minneapolis Philharmonic Society, numerous musical festivals, etc.

Mr. Beddoe's voice is of wide compass, at once robust and lyric in quality and absolutely even throughout its range. He uses it with rare taste, and his performance of operatic arias is as noteworthy as his oratorio singing.

BEETHOVEN, LUDWIG VON (Bay-tow'-fen) (1770–1827)

BEETHOVEN

Born Bonn, Germany, 1770. Began study of music at age 4. Played at concert at 8. Began composition at 10, writing a cantata and "nine variations." Assistant to concert organist at 11, at 12 conductor of Court Opera Orchestra (without pay!). When 14 was granted a salary of 150 florins (about $80). In 1787 made first visit to Vienna, a great event for the boy. Compositions not important until 1795, but from then to his death wrote 260 works. Only opera, Fidelio, produced Vienna, 1805.

Beethoven's influence on art of music very great and can hardly be estimated. He died March 26, 1827; buried in Vienna.

PAINTED BY BALESTRIERI

THE DEATH OF MIMI

BOHÊME, LA (Bow-ehm') (The Bohemians) (In Italian unless noted)

Text by Giacosa and Illica; music by Puccini. First produced at Turin, 1896, In English, as "The Bohemians," in London, 1897. In Italian at Covent Garden, 1899. First American production, November 28, 1899.

Puccini's Bohême is an adaptation of part of Mürger's La Vie Bohême, which depicts life in the Quartier Latin, or the Students' Quarter, in 1830. The principal characters in Puccini's opera are the inseparable quartet described by Mürger, who with equal cheerfulness defy the pangs of hunger and the landlord of their little garret. Rudolph, a poet; Marcel, a painter; Colline, a philosopher; and Schaunard, a musician, are four friends who occupy an attic in the Quartier Latin, where they live and work together. Improvident, reckless and careless, these happy-go-lucky Bohemians find a joy in merely living, being full of faith in themselves.

Rudolph makes the acquaintance of Mimi, a little flower-maker; Marcel meets the gay Musetta, who plays fast and loose with him. Alternate quarrels and reconciliations fill the lives of these lovers, but the final separation ends with the sad death of Mimi, at the close of the opera. In the scenes of careless gaiety is interwoven a touch of pathos; and the music is in turn lively and tender, with a haunting sweetness that is most fascinating.

The principal parts of the opera have been recorded by the Victor, and the series is a splendid one, the singers including Caruso, Melba, Farrar, Gluck, McCormack, etc.

SCENE FROM LEONCAVALLO'S BOHÊME (THÉÂTRE LYRIQUE, 1899)

BOHÊME, LA (Venice, 1897) (Leoncavallo)

Leoncavallo's setting of Murger's story was written several years after the production of Puccini's opera, and differs slightly from the latter version. The first act occurs in the Café Momus, the second in Musetta's house, the third in Marcel's garret, and the fourth in the studio of Rudolph. Unlike the Puccini work, the tenor part is given to Marcel, the lover of Musetta.

This is the opera in which Caruso scored his sensational success at its performance in Milan in 1898—that performance, in fact, being the turning point in his career.

The opera has never been heard here, a fact to be regretted by all who hear these specimens of the music. Operatic managers in America who have heard these superb numbers on the Victor have likely asked themselves why they have not given Leoncavallo's opera in this country.

BOHEMIAN GIRL (The records are sung in English)

This popular ballad opera was one of fifteen similar works by Michael Wm. Balfe (1808) and was produced at Drury Lane, London, in 1843.

The story tells of the kidnapping of Arline, daughter of the Count Arnheim, by Devilshoof, a gypsy chief. Thaddeus, a young noble banished from his country, joins the gypsy band and falls in love with Arline. While the gypsies are attending a fair at Presburg, Arline, now a beautiful maiden of 17, incurring the displeasure of the Gypsy Queen, is accused of stealing and is taken before Count Arnheim, who recognizes his daughter by a scar on her arm. She is restored to her rank, but continues to meet Thaddeus secretly, until the lovers are denounced to the Count by the jealous Queen. The Count is at first indignant, but the pleading of his daughter, and the knowledge that Thaddeus is of noble birth reconciles him to the union of the lovers.

BONINSEGNA, CELESTINA, Soprano

The appearance of Celestina Boninsegna was one of the events of a recent opera season at the Metropolitan. Mme. Boninsegna fully deserved all the praise which had preceded her from Milan, where she had been a member of the Scala forces.

Her voice is an agreeable and well-controlled soprano with an unusually rich and strong lower register. Mme. Boninsegna went from the Metropolitan to the Boston Opera, where she repeated her New York successes. The Victor Company takes pleasure in announcing twelve fine arias by this gifted artist.

BURBECK, FRANK, American Actor

PHOTO MORRISON

This sterling actor is quite well known to theatre-goers, both in America and England. For nearly a quarter of a century his name has been prominent in the leading dramatic productions—Robson and Crane, Dion Boucicault, Maude Adams' productions of Twelfth Night and Joan of Arc, etc.; and he has for many years been a valued member of the Frohman staff.

The Victor has secured the exclusive record services of Mr. Burbeck, and offers a series of orations and recitations.

The six Shakespearean excerpts are nobly delivered, and the Riley poem, the Water Mill, the stirring Barbara Frietchie and a famous old toast are all gracefully spoken.

Mr. Burr is one of the most valued members of the Victor staff of singers, his mellow tenor voice and distinct enunciation making his records most pleasing ones. This singer has contributed to the Victor list a fine collection of popular ballads and old Scotch songs, besides appearing in several duet combinations and with the Peerless Quartet. Mr. Burr's likeness may be found under the Peerless Quartet heading.

BUTT, CLARA, Contralto

The announcement of records by this great English artist was welcome news to those who heard the contralto's artistic work on her first tour of America. It is some years since Mme. Butt was first heard in this country, but the impression she made then is still remembered. Her success in her native land and on the Continent has been very great. Scarcely a festival of importance is considered complete without Mme. Butt's services, while her recitals in English cities invariably attract large throngs.

Mme. Butt, who with her husband, Mr. Kennerly Rumford, toured this country last season before sailing for Australia, has chosen four attractive numbers for her first Victor records.

CALVÉ, EMMA, Soprano (Kahl'-veh)

Dramatic prime donne might come and go, and rise and fall in the estimation of the public, but to a large number of opera-goers and music-lovers there was but one emotional soprano—but one exponent of such rôles as Carmen and Santuzza. Calvé's Carmen, especially, was almost universally accepted as the greatest of all impersonations of the rôle.

COPYT DUPONT CALVÉ

Emma Calvé was born in 1864, at Madrid. She studied under Marchesi and Puget, and made her début at Nice. Her first important appearance was at Brussels in 1882 as Marguerite. This artist's triumphs in America are familiar to all, and although she is now in Europe her admirers find consolation in her Victor records.

Mme. Calvé's exquisitely trained voice, always remarkable for its beautiful timbre and emotional quality, is shown at its best in the records she has made.

This great artist makes records exclusively for the Victor.

CARMEN (Sung in French unless otherwise noted)

Text by Meilhac and Halévy, founded on Mérimée's novel. Music by Bizet. First production, Paris, 1875; London, 1878; New York, 1879, with Minnie Hauk. Some notable revivals, 1893, Calvé's first appearance; 1905, with Caruso; and Hammerstein's revival, 1906, with Bressler-Gianoli and Dalmores.

Don Jose, a young brigadier, betrothed to Micaela, a peasant girl in his native village, is quartered at Seville near a factory where Carmen, a reckless and beautiful cigarette girl, stabs a fellow-employee, and is arrested by Jose. She manages to fascinate him, and makes her escape. Jose is imprisoned for neglect of duty, but when released follows the gypsy to Pastia's Inn, where he finds Escamillo, a Toreador, and Zuniga, his captain, both paying court to Carmen. Stung with jealousy he deserts, and follows the band of smugglers Carmen has joined.

The next act shows the smugglers' camp, and Carmen, already tired of her soldier, welcomes the Toreador, who has followed her. Jose is about to kill her when Micaela arrives with a summons from his dying mother. He goes, but threatens vengeance. In the last act the tragedy occurs, when Jose, half crazed with jealousy, kills Carmen outside the bull ring, where she is awaiting the triumphant Escamillo.

CARTWRIGHT

Earl Cartwright is one of Boston's most popular baritone soloists, and has won a high reputation in musical circles. He has sung with the Cecilia Society, the Apollo Club, the Handel and Haydn Society and the St. Louis Orchestra, besides numerous concert engagements throughout the East. The baritone's annual recitals are features of the concert season in many New England cities.

Mr. Cartwright has a musical, flexible voice of unusually beautiful quality, and sings in a most artistic manner.

CARUSO, ENRICO, Tenor (Kah-roo'-soh)

Caruso's success is the greatest ever attained by an artist in this country. His American engagements have been a continuous ovation, the great audiences being held spellbound by the exquisite refinement, beauty and power of his voice.

Caruso is a native of Naples and was born in 1873. When he was a mere boy he sang in the churches of Naples, and the beauty of his voice arrested the attention of all who heard it. His father did not encourage the boy at first, but a few years later was persuaded to allow him to take a few lessons in singing. The family was very poor, however, and Caruso was forced to work as a mechanic. This work not being very profitable, he began to seriously consider whether he could not make more by singing than he could earn by hard work with his hands.

He was eighteen years old when he met a distinguished baritone singer, who, after hearing his voice, decided that he would give Caruso substantial assistance. He therefore took him to Maestro Vergine, who was captivated by the beauty and purity of his voice, and began to give him vocal instructions.

Caruso made his début in 1894 in Naples, in a now forgotten opera, L'amico Francesco, afterward singing in various Italian cities and in Cairo. A South American engagement followed, and on his return, after a season in Milan, it was clear that here was one of the most promising young tenors ever heard in Italy. Caruso had made a success in various countries of Europe before coming to America in 1903, but it was his performance of the Duke at the Metropolitan on November 23d of that year which convinced operagoers that the greatest of all tenors had arrived. This artist has just finished his tenth season in this country and his success has been greater than ever before.

Caruso has made records exclusively for the Victor since 1903, and as the present contract with the tenor does not expire until 1933, the public is assured perfect reproductions of his voice for many years to come.

CAVALLERIA RUSTICANA, (Kah-vahl-lay-ree'-ah Roos-tee-kah'-nah) (Rustic Chivalry) Sung in Italian unless otherwise noted

Opera in one act; libretto adapted from "Verga" by Menasci; music by Mascagni. First production, Rome, 1890; London, 1891; first U. S. production at Phila., 1891.

The story of "Rustic Chivalry" is one of Sicilian love and hate, passion and revenge. Turiddu, a young peasant, son of old Lucia, goes to war, and during his absence from the village his sweetheart, Lola, forgets him and weds the young carter, Alfio. Turiddu returns and consoles himself with the love of Santuzza, the village beauty, but soon tiring of her, his old passion for Lola revives. Santuzza, scorned by Turiddu, reveals the affair to the wronged husband. On Easter morning, as the villagers are leaving church, Alfio challenges the destroyer of his domestic happiness. Repenting his misdeeds, Turiddu, takes an affectionate leave of his mother, and goes forth to the duel. Justice is accomplished in his death at the hands of Alfio, and the betrayed Santuzza is left disconsolate.

CHILDREN'S RECORDS—See also "Educational Records"

Although children of all ages are enthusiastic supporters of the Victor and enjoy a very large proportion of our records, we think they should have a few which have been made especially for their benefit. We have therefore issued a series of well-known songs and recitations written especially for the little ones by several well-known authors. These are delightfully rendered by Henry Allan Price, Elizabeth Wheeler and other singers, in the plainest of English, and are sure to please every normal child. Don't fail to take some of these records home to the tots, who will be delighted with them.

CHOPIN, FRÉDÉRIC (Sho-pang) (nasal—ng only partly sounded)

CHOPIN

Born near Warsaw, Poland, 1809. Studied under Zywny and Elsner, and pronounced a genius at 8. Entered Warsaw Conservatory at 12. Published first composition at 14, the Rondo in C Minor. Other celebrated works written before 19. At 20, concert tour of German cities with success. Too frail physically for army, became an exile, and lived Paris as teacher and pianist. Associated with Bellini, Cherubini, Meyerbeer. Visited England in 1837, and began acquaintance with George Sand (Mme. Dudevant). They returned to France 1839, separated 1847. Alternate happiness and misery of this association aggravated his tubercular condition, and he died 1849. Buried Père-la-Chaise, Paris, after impressive funeral attended by entire musical colony.

Works consist mainly of smaller pieces for piano, and his nocturnes, mazurkas, etudes, have never been equaled in their particular class. His personality remarkable—cared nothing for applause, and fascinated all who met him. Life-long illness and sympathy for trials of his native Poland found expression in music of exquisite beauty.

The Victor takes pride in giving to the world many beautiful and perfect reproductions of the playing of the greatest interpreters of Chopin, including de Pachmann, whose renditions of the master's works are unsurpassable.

CLARKE, HERBERT L., Cornetist

CLARKE

Herbert L. Clarke, who is one of the greatest cornet soloists in the world, has been the leading player with many famous bands and orchestras including Gilmore's Band, Innes' Band, Seventh Regiment Band of New York, etc., besides conductor of the famous Providence Band which succeeded Reeves' American Band. Mr. Clarke is the assistant conductor and soloist of Sousa's Band, and during the recent around-the-world tour of the band, his playing was one of the great features of the concerts.

A fine list of solos by Mr. Clarke and duets with other instruments, is offered by the Victor, and these records exhibit well his beautiful tone quality and brilliant execution.

CLEMENT, EDMOND, Tenor (Klaim-ong'—ng partly sounded)

CLEMENT

The Victor announces with pleasure the engagement of Edmond Clement for a series of French songs and opera airs. This favorite French artist, who has for many years been the leading tenor at the Paris Opera Comique, was born in Paris. He was destined for a civil engineer, and graduated from the Polytechnic; but his love for music compelled him to enter the Conservatoire, where he was one of the most brilliant pupils of his class. He was soon placed on the staff of the Opera Comique, where he remained continuously until brought over by the Metropolitan in 1909; and during his stay in America has duplicated his French success.

In the records which M. Clement has made for the Victor his beautifully schooled voice, graceful style and perfect diction are shown to perfection. The tenor now makes records exclusively for the Victor.

COGHLAN, ROSE, American Actress

"Tell you something of my life on the stage! Why, that would take volumes," said Rose Coghlan, as though exhausted at the idea. Certainly few actresses have had so comprehensive and successful a career. At the age of nineteen she was playing Lady Macbeth in an English provincial town. She has played with many famous actors, and has been around the world at the head of her own company. The Victor has induced Miss Coghlan to recite Tennyson's famous poem, and the result is one of the most dramatic and thrilling records imaginable. The Victor controls exclusively Miss Coghlan's rendition of this selection on disc records.

COHAN, GEORGE M., Comedian

This versatile gentleman, sometimes known as "The Yankee Doodle Boy," is a real nephew of Uncle Sam, as he was born on July 4, 1878, in Providence. At the age of 10 he began his theatrical career in a play written by his father, and a few years later entered the vaudeville field with the Cohan family, the company being known as The Four Cohans.

COHAN

Young George's first sketch was The Governor's Son, which brought the family into added prominence. It was Little Johnny Jones, however, that made him widely known as a native American author. This highly original musical comedy was produced October 10, 1904. Other pieces by him were 45 Minutes from Broadway, Geo. Washington, Jr., Popularity, Little Millionaire, American Idea, Yankee Doodle Boy, Yankee Prince, Talk of New York, etc.

COLLINS, ARTHUR, Comedian

COPY'T CHADBELL

COLLINS

Mr. Collins is one of the most successful singers of "coon songs" now before the public. It has been freely predicted that this type of song would cease to be the fashion, but we can see few signs of any decrease in popularity. Victor audiences, however, are becoming more particular, and insist that the numbers must be well sung and the words extremely plain. Mr. Collins is quite able to please his hearers in this respect, and his work is always good, both in solos and in the clever duets made with Mr. Harlan. These unique songs and specialties have amused countless record customers during the past twelve years.

CONSTANTINO, FLORENCIO, Tenor

Florencio Constantino went to New Orleans with the San Carlo Company several years ago almost unheralded, and has since achieved a very great success. Following the San Carlo tour came the engagement of the tenor by Oscar Hammerstein; and the following season Constantino went to the Boston opera. This artist has a very fine voice, which he uses with consummate skill, the beauty of his mezzo-voce singing, well displayed in his Victor records, is especially noticeable. After a brilliant success in South America, Mr. Constantino recently finished his third season in Boston where he repeated the successes already made there.

COUNTER-TENOR SOLOS
NOTE.—The counter-tenor, or male alto, is one of the rarest of voices and is possessed by very few adults. These singers are much in demand for male choirs because of the scarcity of true boy altos and the great difficulty in training a boy soprano for this part. The Victor is fortunately able to offer records of three fine counter-tenors, besides the famous male soprano of the Sistine Choir at Rome—these records being listed under the headings noted below.

CULP, JULIA, Mezzo-Soprano

CULP

The Victor announces with pride the successful termination of negotiations for the exclusive record services of Julia Culp, the distinguished mezzo-soprano, and whose success in America has been almost unprecedented.

Mme. Culp was born in Holland and received her first musical training in the Amsterdam Conservatory, afterward going to Berlin, where she studied with Mme. Gerster. She made her first public appearance in Germany at a concert in Magdeburg in 1903, and soon afterward she sang at a concert in Berlin, when her success was assured. To-day she has only to announce a Berlin concert and the house is sold out weeks ahead, while Austria-Hungary, Russia, England, France, Belgium, Holland, Spain, Italy and Scandinavia have all acclaimed her as a peerless artist.

Mme. Culp now lives at Zehlendorff, a suburb of Berlin, where she has a charming Dutch home. She loves her native land, however, and every summer spends ten days as a special guest of the Queen at Het Loo. The Queen Mother of Holland has been a patroness of the artist for many years.

Mme. Culp has chosen for her first Victor records a favorite German cradle song and an old English ballad. The "Drink to Me Only" is exquisitely sung in the clearest of English, only a slight but piquant and fascinating accent showing that it is not her native language.

The singer's rendering of Brahm's beautiful Lullaby is a tender and lovely one. That admirable artist, Coenraad V. Bos, accompanies his countrywoman in the Cradle Song with his usual sympathetic skill.

DALMORES, CHARLES, Tenor (Dal-mo-reh')

Mr. Dalmores has made a splendid success in America, and has proven one of the best French tenors heard in New York in many years.

This young artist was born at Nancy, France, in 1872, and made his début at Rouen in 1899—with such success that he was engaged for the Brussels Opera, and his Brussels triumphs were repeated at Covent Garden. He was brought to the U. S. in 1906 by Oscar Hammerstein, and his success at the Manhattan in Don José, Samson, Hoffman, Romeo and other rôles are well remembered. Mr. Dalmores is now with the Philadelphia-Chicago Opera Company.

Dancing the Maxixe

Dancing the Hesitation

CASTLE HOUSE
30 EAST 48TH STREET
NEW YORK

March 2, 1914.

The superiority of the Victor & Victor Records is so apparent that Mrs. Castle and I after a thorough trial of other sound reproducing instruments, have decided to use the Victor and Victor Records exclusively at Castle House.

Mrs. Castle and I find the Victrola practically indistinguishable, while the quality of music it supplies during class work is so satisfactory, that our pupils are as enthusiastic in favor of the Victrola as we are ourselves.

I also have great pleasure in announcing that I have given to the Victor Company the exclusive services of the Castle House orchestra for the making of dance records, and also that I will personally superintend the making of Victor Dance Records.

Vernon Castle

Dancing the One Step

Dancing the Tango

The Victor's list of dance records, which Mr. and Mrs. Castle have so fully approved, now contains more than 350 selections, placing at your disposal the most complete and comprehensive list in the world.

DE GOGORZA, EMILIO, Baritone (deh Goh-gort'-zah)

Emilio de Gogorza is one of the best known bantones in America. His well-trained voice and artistic interpretations are quite familiar to concert-goers, and he sings a remarkable variety of music with admirable skill and unimpeachable good taste.

Mr. de Gogorza's list of Victor records is a very large one and shows his great versatility, no less than forty selections in Spanish, French, Italian and English having been contributed by him to the Victor catalogue. This artist sings exclusively for the Victor.

DE LUCIA, FERNANDO, Tenor (Sung in Italian)

This famous tenor, who is one of the foremost exponents of the old Italian school of bel canto, was born in 1860 at Naples. Since his début in Italy some thirty years ago, his career has been one of continued and genuine triumphs. In his younger days his place among the greatest tenors of the world was unquestioned, and to-day he is still the idol of a large proportion of the opera-goers of Italy.

The Victor recorded this great singer when he was at the height of his career, and the records which are presented here are reproductions of De Lucia's voice at its best.

DE LUSSAN, ZELIE, Soprano

DE LUSSAN

Zelie de Lussan was born in Brooklyn, and made her début in opera with the Boston Ideal Opera Company. During her three years with that company she achieved success as Carmen, Adina and Arline. In 1889 she went to London to fill an engagement at Covent Garden, and with such success that she has since remained in England, paying occasional visits to her native country for engagements at the Metropolitan.

Mme. de Lussan's Carmen was pronounced by the London critics to be a true and realistic character study, free from the faintest shade of coarseness or exaggeration, while her Mignon was a most refined and dainty impersonation. The records which the Victor has made of this artist's voice have been much appreciated by her many friends in America.

DE PACHMANN

One of the Victor Company's recent sensational announcements was the exclusive engagement of Vladimir de Pachmann for a series of pianoforte reproductions. M. de Pachmann has been frequently heard in America, but his recent tour was the most successful of all, his remarkable playing of the Chopin works being greeted with the greatest enthusiasm.

The reproductions which the Victor has made of this artist's playing show in a marvelously faithful manner his beautiful tone and exquisite delicacy of touch. These include nine exquisite Chopin compositions; a dainty trifle by Raff; Mendelssohn and Schumann numbers; and the pianist's celebrated encore piece, the famous Rigoletto transcription by Listz.

DESTINN, EMMY, Soprano

This noted Berlin soprano was born in Prague in 1878, as Emma Kittl. She was first taught the violin, but at fourteen it was discovered that her voice promised to be an unusual one, and she was sent to that noted teacher, Marie Loewe-Destinn, under whom her progress was very rapid. Adopting her teacher's name for stage purposes, she was engaged for the Berlin Royal Opera when barely nineteen, and speedily became a great favorite.

The singer's international fame began with her appearance at Bayreuth in 1901. She created the rôles of Butterfly and Salome in Berlin, and afterward made a notable success in London in the Puccini opera.

DESTINN

Mme. Destinn demonstrated at her first American appearance several years ago that she was an operatic actress of rare skill, with a voice of unusual beauty; and since that time she has sung a large number of rôles with unvarying excellence.

The Victor takes pleasure in offering to the musical public five reproductions of the voice of this famous singer.

DUNLAP, MARGUERITE, Contralto

DUNLAP

This young singer's rich contralto and distinct enunciation have made her one of the most useful of the talented company which the Victor has assembled, and in both solos and many concerted numbers her work has been admirable.

The series of little darky songs which Miss Dunlap has rendered are doubly attractive because of the fascinating Southern accent of this young daughter of South Carolina.

Miss Dunlap makes records exclusively for the Victor.

EAMES, EMMA, Soprano

COPYRIGHT DUPONT
EAMES

Emma Eames was born in Shanghai, China, of American parents, her father being a lawyer of the International Courts. The family soon returned to their American home in Bath, Maine, where the young Emma began the study of music—at first with her mother but finally going to Paris, where she spent several years with Mme. Marchesi in arduous study.

Mme. Eames made her way to the front by sheer talent and hard study. A pure fresh voice, flexible and expressive, remarkably good intonation, and an unbounded enthusiasm for her work were the qualities which contributed to her rapid advancement. She has, during her career, created a number of important rôles.

Mme. Eames makes records exclusively for the Victor.

EDUCATIONAL RECORDS—Special Records for School and Home Use

This list of records has been made to help in the uplift of the ideals and tastes of children everywhere. These songs and others to follow are just as suitable for the home circle as for the school room, and may be used for children anywhere and at any time. The list contains numbers for General School Use, Kindergarten, Primary, Intermediate and Grammar Grades, the High School and College. Some of the short songs are grouped several on one record with small spaces between, enabling the teacher to present any one she may choose for teaching without the unpleasantness of guessing where it begins and getting a part of another song. These individual songs may be played over and over as many times as required for complete mastery by the class.

We are issuing most of these school records in Double-faced form, which makes the price of each selection a most reasonable one.

NOTE.—Those interested in the work of the Victor School Educational Department are requested to apply to dealers or to the Victor Company for special lists of records and booklets on the subject of the Victor in the Public Schools.

Stories, Fables and Folk Tales for the Children

Story-telling has long been a vital part of the Kindergarten, and now has taken on new life as an indispensable adjunct of the playground activities. We therefore present the first of a series of the treasures of childhood, told in a childlike way.

Miss Georgene Faulkner, the "Story Lady," has a wide acquaintance through her Chautauqua appearances, and from her delightful "corner" in the Chicago Tribune. A practical and thoroughly alive Kindergartner, Miss Faulkner has the gift of telling the old familiar stories of childhood in a manner to bring smiles, laughter or "creeps" to the little ones in their story-hour. Thousands of children in Chicago and elsewhere have listened to the thrilling experiences of "Chicken Little" and dear little "Goldilocks."

WHAT WE HEAR IN MUSIC

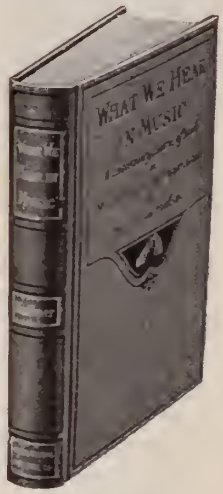
We take the keenest pleasure in announcing the success of our new book, "What We Hear in Music," by Anne Shaw Faulkner—a four years' course of studies for high schools, academies, colleges and home study—illustrated at every point by Victor Records, especially applicable to each subject.

It consists of 120 lessons subdivided into four courses of 30 lessons each, as follows:

1. The Principles of Music.
2. The History of Music.
3. The Orchestra: The Development of Instrumental Music.
4. The Opera and Oratorio.

We predict that this work will make it possible for supervisors to revolutionize high school music throughout the country, because it gives a complete, systematized plan of study with the real music, a thing never before possible in the history of music education. To the average pupil, music history has ever been a dull, dead mass of meaningless names and dates, but it becomes most fascinating when you have the music whose history you wish to know.

The work begins with familiar folk songs of all nations—traces them back to their sources, then comes down again the pathway music has traveled, from the beginning until now—song, dance, form, instruments, opera and oratorio—each set in its own proper place along the way.



400 pages, 6½ x 9½
fully illustrated

The book is on sale at all Victor Dealers at $1.00, or will be mailed on receipt of price, plus postage (20 cents).

ELMAN, MISCHA, Violinist (Accompaniments by Percy Kahn)

This young Russian violinist is quite the sensation of the day, and American audiences, like the London and Berlin critics, have been absolutely amazed at this young player's maturity and independence of conception, his superb command of violin and bow and his marvelous delivery.

Elman recently signed a new agreement, which gives the Victor the sole right to issue his records for a further term of years. The artist's fourth American tour, was even more successful than the previous ones, crowded houses and unlimited enthusiasm being the rule wherever he appeared.

The Elman records are a revelation—the beautiful tone, the smoothness of the records and the absence of any mechanical imperfections being delightful to note.

FARRAR, GERALDINE, Soprano (Fair'-rahr)

GERLACH FARRAP

Although Geraldine Farrar brought to America a European reputation as an established favorite in Paris and Berlin, she has won a triumph here entirely on her merits as a singer and actress.

This young artist has all the attributes of a great prima donna—a beautiful, fresh, flexible voice, and a stage presence altogether pleasing to look upon—charming in face, figure and movement.

Miss Farrar was born in Melrose, Mass., in 1882, and at the age of twelve began her musical studies with Mrs. Long, of Boston, afterward coming to New York to study with Emma Thursby, at the same time learning dramatic action from Capoul. In 1899 she went to Paris, but became dissatisfied with her progress and decided to go to Berlin—a fortunate decision, as in a very short time she sang for Dr. Muck, of the Royal Opera, and was engaged for three years, making her début in October, 1901, as Violetta in Traviata. Miss Farrar now began to study harder than ever, at first with Spaziani, afterward with Lili Lehmann.

Though Miss Farrar's operatic career is a comparatively brief one, she has sung a very large number of rôles, including Marguerite, Butterfly, Manon, Micaela, Mignon, Elizabeth, Tosca, Juliet, Zerlina, Cherubino, Gilda, Mimi, Violetta, Nedda and many others. This young singer has chosen for her Victor list numbers which display in a striking manner the loveliness of her voice—the ballads and hymns being sung with a clearness of enunciation quite unusual and delightful, while the operatic airs and concerted numbers are beautifully delivered.

Miss Farrar has entered into an arrangement to sing exclusively for the Victor.

KREILING — MARGUERITE'S SURRENDER — VICTOR BOOK OF THE OPERA

FAUST (Fowst) by Gounod (Sung in French unless otherwise indicated)

Opera in five acts; libretto by Barbier and Carré, founded upon Goethe's tragedy; music by Gounod. First produced in Paris, 1859; London, 1863; New York, 1863.

Faust, a German philosopher, after a life of meditation, becomes disgusted with the smallness of human knowledge and his own inability to unravel the mysteries of Nature. He summons to his aid the Spirit of Evil, who appears to him under the form of Mephistopheles. Through the supernatural power of the latter, Faust is restored to youth and endowed with personal beauty and luxurious garb. Mephistopheles, in a vision, reveals to him the village maid Margaret, with whom the student falls in love. Margaret, noted for her loveliness, has been left by her soldier brother, Valentine, under the care of Dame Martha, a worthy but not very vigilant personage. The maiden at first rejects the stranger's advances, but Faust, aided by the influence of Mephistopheles, urges his suit, and Margaret's resistance is at length overcome. Valentine, on returning from the wars, learns what has occurred; he challenges his sister's betrayer, but, through the intervention of Mephistopheles, he is killed in the duel. Margaret, horror-stricken at the calamity of which she is the cause, gives way to despair. Her reason becomes affected, and in a frenzy she kills her infant. She is thrown into prison, and Faust, aided by Mephistopheles, obtains access to the cell in which she is confined. They both eagerly urge her to fly, but Margaret, in whom holier feelings have obtained the ascendant, spurns their proffered aid, and expires. Mephistopheles is triumphant at the apparent success of his schemes to destroy a human soul, but a chorus of heavenly voices is heard proclaiming that there is pardon for the repentant sinner, and the Evil One, foiled and overcome, crouches in terror as the spirit of Margaret is borne to heaven by ministering angels.

The complete opera has been recorded by the Victor, with the exception of a few unimportant bits which are not interesting without the action. The numbers are printed in the order of their occurrence in the opera.

FISK UNIVERSITY JUBILEE QUARTET

The Jubilee Songs collected and introduced to the world by Fisk University, and which might be called Negro Folk Songs, are quaint and interesting numbers. Some touch the heart with their pathos; and some although intensely religious, sometimes excite to laughter by their quaint conceptions of religious ideas or Biblical facts.

The original company of Jubilee Singers traveled seven years in the United States and Europe. After the disbanding of this company, the work was kept up by a quartet which has been kept in the field for the whole or part of each season.

The Victor has secured the exclusive record services of the genuine Fisk Quartet, and now presents a number of their unique songs.

FORNIA, RITA, Soprano (For'-nee-ah)

COPY'T DUPONT FORNIA

This brilliant young soprano, who has recently been engaged by the Victor, is a native of California. When a young girl she heard Patti sing and decided on a musical career. Her father objected, but finally consented to let her go to Germany, where she made her début in La Juive at Hamburg, afterwards singing in Barbiere and Magic Flute. Mr. Savage then secured her for his company, where she was heard by Mr. Conried and engaged for the Metropolitan.

The young singer has been a most useful member of that organization, singing a varied assortment of rôles, the latest being Leonora in Il Trovatore, and Gutrune in Gotterdammerung.

FOSTER, STEPHEN COLLINS

FOSTER

Born 1826, near Pittsburgh. Began writing when a student in Athens, Pa., Academy, and published first song, Open Thy Lattice, in 1842. Educated at Jefferson College; lived at Pittsburgh. Wrote 175 songs; best known ones those listed below. His songs, called folk-songs of America, are known in every land, and sung in many languages. Were probably not derived from negro tunes, as has been stated, but negro dialect was doubtless used because of the vogue of negro minstrels in the 40's and 50's. Was a Bohemian in tastes and quite talented; painted some, loved good music, spoke German and French. Died in New York, 1864.

GADSKI, JOHANNA, Soprano (Gahd'-skee)

Johanna Gadski was born at Anclam, Prussia, in 1871, and received her musical education at Stettin, making her début at quite an early age. Her success was immediate and has grown greater with each succeeding year.

Gadski, it might be said, has many voices, so varied are her accomplishments. She is equally at ease in the exquisite Mozart music, as the passionate and dramatic Aïda, the unfortunate Santuzza, or the goddess-like Brünnhilde, while her interpretation of German lieder is artistic in the extreme. In these beautiful records every one of her tones, from the caressing softness of voice in the dainty love songs to the dramatic cry of Brünnhilde, or in the vivid contrasts of the three voices in the Erlking, is that of a true artist.

GALVANY, MARIA, Soprano (Gahl-vah'-nee)

GALVANY

The success of this colorature soprano, not only in Italy and South America, but in all the countries where she has sung, has been very gratifying to all lovers of operatic music of the old school. La Scala audiences have called Mme. Galvany "one of the lyric sopranos of the age," and her voice possesses a flexibility and charm which Nature bestows on very few artists indeed. Although Spanish, or rather Catalonian, by birth, her Italian diction is perfect.

She is one of the most popular figures on the operatic stage in Europe and South America, and her fine records constitute an eloquent evidence of her vocal gifts. Her execution is unusually brilliant, while her staccato notes are bird-like and as clear as a bell.

GAY, MARIA, Mezzo-Soprano (Guy)

GAY

This young artist is a native of Catalonia, in Spain; and reversing the usual order, studied under an American teacher, Mme. Odiny. Mme. Gay's conception of the part of Carmen is a new and original one, differing widely from that of Calvé or Bressler-Gianoli.

Mme. Gay's voice is a most striking one—a rich mezzo-soprano, capable of expressing every shade of emotion.

Pursuing its usual policy, the Victor promptly followed Mme. Gay's American success with two fine impressions of her voice in the two principal Carmen airs, and these records exhibit fully the beautiful voice this young singer possesses.

GERVILLE-RÉACHE, JEANNE, Contralto (Zher'-veel Ray-ahsh')

The Victor Company begs to announce a number of records by this French contralto, who has made such a success in the opera in America.

This accomplished artist is a native of the Basque country in southwest France. Her mother was Spanish, while her father was French, being long a Colonial Governor of Guadaloupe. Even when a child her voice was phenomenal for its unusual quality; and when Mme. Calvé heard it she advised that it be trained for an operatic career. To the great Criticos of Paris is due the credit for the development of this wonderful voice, now remarkable for its wide range and exquisite quality—attributes which are strikingly shown in the beautiful records Mme. Gerville-Réache has made for the Victor.

The recent death of this famous baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Company lends a melancholy interest to the list of records he has made.

Although the worth of this artist was well known to New Yorkers, he had won new triumphs during his last seasons at the Manhattan and Metropolitan, his work being highly praised. M. Gilibert, a short time before his death, gave the Victor several delightful French songs, delivering them with the artistic finish and good enunciation for which he was noted.

GLENN, WILFRED, Bass

Splendid reproductions of one of the finest basso-profundo voices the Victor has ever discovered.

Mr. Glenn's voice is fresh and youthful and his low tones deep, round and full. The selections he has recorded for the Victor include all the old favorites, such as "Down Deep," "Rocked in the Cradle," "The Diver," besides the popular Robin Hood and Rob Roy numbers and some new songs by Ball and Spross. This young basso sings exclusively for the Victor.

COPYT MISHKIN

GLUCK

One of the latest additions to the Victor's list of famous sopranos is Alma Gluck, the youngest of the Metropolitan Opera Company's prima donnas, to whom nature has been most kind, as she is dainty, petite, beautiful to look upon, with a lovely, even, sympathetic voice.

Although born in Bucharest, Roumania, Mme. Gluck is essentially American, as she came to this country at the age of six, and most of her musical education was received here.

The public knew very little of this young singer until one morning, three years ago, when, after making her first appearance as Sophie in Werther at the New Theatre, she awoke to find herself famous. Since that time she has sung in various operas with much success; among them Bohême, Orfeo, Bartered Bride, Faust, etc.

Mme. Gluck's Victor list is a very attractive one, including an effective Scotch song; a popular Habanera, one of Cadman's delightful Indian Songs; a dainty trifle, "Will-o'-the-Wisp"; several interesting Russian songs; a vocal waltz by Arditi; some clearly spoken English renditions; and several fine renditions of opera airs, besides a number of finely balanced duets with Madame Homer.

Mme. Gluck has agreed to make records exclusively for the Victor.

GOLDEN, BILLY, Comedian

No negro specialty records have ever been so popular as the records by Billy Golden. No one could ever approach him in this kind of work—in fact the hearer forgets all about Golden and hears only a jolly old darky with an infectious laugh. Five of Golden's most famous specialties, including the favorite "Turkey in de Straw," are listed here.

GORITZ, OTTO, Baritone (Go'-ritz)

GORITZ

Otto Goritz is one of the most satisfactory singers in the Metropolitan Company, his versatility being quite remarkable. Since his engagement several years ago he has played an astonishing number of importan rôles, and with unvarying excellence, whether it be serious rôles – Klingsor, Alberich, Wolfram, Telramund, Hans Sachs—or humorous ones—Beckmesser in Meistersinger, Burgomaster in Czar and Zimmermann, the father in Hansel and Gretel or Papageno in Magic Flute.

His voice is of unusual richness and power and his acting always superb. The announcement of the exclusive engagement of this artist by the Victor was a most welcome one to his admirers.

Became organist in San Luigi church and contemplated becoming priest. In 1850, his Mass having made success in England, was asked to write a work for the Paris Académie. Opera Sapho, produced 1851, not a success. Other compositions not important till 1859, when his masterpiece Faust appeared. Wrote many other operas, only Romeo being successful. Last years devoted to sacred compositions, his oratorio, Redemption one of the greatest of its kind. Faust most popular of all operas, given 1,500 times in Paris alone. Entire work recorded by the Victor, with the greatest of all-star casts. Gounod died Paris, 1893.

GREENE

Admirers of this popular comedian will note with pleasure that the Victor has engaged him for a series of records. Those who have not heard him have something of a treat coming to them, as Mr. Greene's singing of the popular coon songs is simply inimitable.

A number of the comedian's best songs are offered, and they are highly amusing. "King of the Bungaloos," especially, is one of the most amusing bits of nonsense the Victor has ever listed.

GREGORIAN CHANTS

The efforts of Pius X to reform sacred music in the Catholic Church and revive the use of the Gregorian plain-song, so expressive of the grandeur and simplicity of pure religious emotion, have been the cause of much discussion during the past few years. The teaching and proper execution of Gregorian music require something more than the mere printed score. Oral tradition is also needed, for it alone can teach the right musical accentuation.

The Gregorian Congress, therefore, at the instance of Baron Kanzler, decided to avail itself of one of the latest applications of modern science, and to have records taken of the Gregorian Mass for use on the Victor. These records were sent to many Catholic seminaries, colleges, convents and churches of the world, and the Victor is doing, on a large scale, that which the two teachers, Romanus and Peter, did on a small scale in the eighth century.

NOTE—It connat be denied that these Gregorion chont records ore somewhot monotanous, except ta those specially interested. The overove record customer will prefer the concerted numbers listed under "Sistine Choir," which ore remarkably interesting reproductions of o famaus body of singers in some nable religiaus compositions.

RECORDS OF THE GREGORIAN HIGH MASS

GRIEG, EDVARD HAGERUP (1843–1907) (Greeg)

GRIEG

Born Bergen, Norway, 1843. At 6 began musical education under his mother. At the age of 15 was sent to Leipsic Conservatory. Returned to Norway 1863, and began writing the original and spontaneous music which was to make him famous. In 1867 founded a musical society in Christiana, which he directed for thirteen years. Visited Italy 1870, became intimate friend of Liszt, then in Rome. Made many visits to Germany. In 1888 went to London, conducted own compositions and played piano with much success. Made honorary Musical Doctor 1894.

Grieg really founded a new school of Scandinavian music. His short piano pieces among the most charming works of their class and his numerous songs full of poetic feeling. The Peer Gynt Suite, written for Ibsen's dramatic poem, "Peer Gynt," is perhaps the best known of all his compositions. Grieg died September 4, 1907.

GRÜNFELD, ALFRED, Pianist (Groon-feld)

GRUNFELD

This famous European pianist is beloved by the Vienna public and by audiences in other cities where he has appeared. His remarkable capabilities as a pianist are familiar to those who have heard his Victor records.

Herr Grünfeld has played for the Victor his famous Brassin Transcription of the Walküre Fire Music, in which the leave-taking of Wotan and the breaking out of the flames of Logi are so wonderfully pictured; and a delightful Strauss waltz, brilliantly given. These numbers are played with that delicate touch and entire disregard of technical difficulties which mark the work of this artist.

HAMLIN, GEORGE, Tenor

HAMLIN

George Hamlin is one of the most thoroughly satisfactory artists before the public, and has fairly won his right to be called one of the greatest of American tenors. His beautiful voice is familiar to the concert-goers of America and Europe, and his recitals in Chicago are features of the musical life of that city.

To attempt to give a list of the successes earned by him it would be necessary to recall almost every important oratorio production and musical festival of the past few years. Among the most important of these are Worcester Musical Festival (seven appearances), Chicago Apollo Club, Toronto Mendelssohn Choir, Boston Symphony Orchestra, New York Philharmonic Orchestra. During the past season Mr. Hamlin has been singing with the Philadelphia-Chicago Opera Company and made a great success in Natoma, Jewels of the Madonna and other operas.

The countless admirers of this sterling tenor will be delighted with the fine list of numbers which are catalogued here.

HANDEL, GEORG FRIEDRICH (1685-1759)

HANDEL

Born Halle, 1685. Father a barber, afterward valet to Prince Saxe. The boy was intended for lawyer but secretly studied harpsichord. At 7 went to visit at Court where Prince heard him playing organ, and offered to educate him. In 1696 went to Berlin where precocity astonished all. Father died 1697. Handel entered Halle University and played organ at $50 year salary. In 1703 went to Hamburg, and in 1705 wrote two operas. Visited Italy in 1706 and brought out two Italian operas, Roderigo and Agrippina. Went England in 1710, produced Rinaldo, first English opera. Revisited England in 1718, became chapel master to Duke of Chandos and composed first oratorios, Esther, Acis and Salatea. Director Royal Academy Music, 1720 to 1729, producing many operas. Became British subject 1726. Operatic troubles ruined health, causing paralysis 1737. Partially recovered and in 1741 abandoned opera and turned wholly to oratorio, writing in quick succession Saul, Israel, L'Allegro, and in 1742 his immortal Messiah, greatest of oratorios, followed by Samson, Judas, Joshua and many others. In 1752 became practically blind, but continued to direct his works until 1759, when he died. Buried in Westminster Abbey, where monument has been erected. Was the greatest master of oratorio. Other writings numerous, including 40 operas, none of which are now performed.

HARLAN, BYRON G., Tenor

HARLAN

This popular tenor and comedian is one of the most versatile of the company of entertainers which the Victor has gathered together, and really seems at home in almost any kind of work he essays. Mr. Harlan not only sings popular ballads in a remarkably pleasant tenor voice, but is also one of the cleverest and most amusing of comedians, whether his impersonation be that of a typical Yankee, a darky wench or an end man in a minstrel show.

For the inimitable duets which this tenor sings with Mr. Collins and other singers see "Collins and Harlan," "Porter," "Stanley" and "Duets, Vocal."

HAWAIIAN QUINTETTE

The Hawaiians are passionately fond of music, and their poetry (called mele) is highly figurative, abounding in lists of names and in allusions to their mythology, to places, to local winds and rains, to seas and ocean and favorite flowers.

The Victor recently announced a fine new list of favorite Hawaiian numbers, rendered by the now famous Hawaiian Quintette, who have made such a success in the "Bird of Paradise" Company. Quite a creditable attempt at English is made by these singers in two of the numbers (No. 65344).

THE HAWAIIAN QUINTETTE

Although these fine records are intended mainly for customers in the Hawaiian Islands, they are likely to be largely acquired by those Victor customers who have enjoyed the singing of this Quintette in the "Bird of Paradise" Company, and, in fact, by all who like quaint and fascinating music such as this.

HAYDEN QUARTET (Hay'-den) Bieling, Macdonough, Dudley, Hooley

HAYDEN QUARTET

This popular singing organization, well known to buyers of Victor records, was the first male quartet to make satisfactory talking machine records—their success being so great here that they were finally obliged to visit England, where they made a large number of records for the European companies. On their return the Victor secured the exclusive record services of the organization and the quartet has since been a prominent feature of the Victor catalogue.

Many songs and ballads have been made popular throughout the country through the Victor records made by the Hayden singers, while their plantation songs and sacred numbers have set a new standard in the recording of male voices

HELENA, EDITH, Soprano

HELENA

Miss Edith Helena, that popular soprano with the marvelous range of voice, after singing several years in Europe, decided that after all there was no place like home, and recently accepted an engagement with the Aborn English Grand Opera Company. During the season of that company her impersonations of Thaïs, Leonora, Arline and Lucia were much appreciated, and she has since been filling special engagements with the Century Opera Co. in New York. Miss Helena recently finished an engagement with the Victor, and the results were most satisfactory, as her new reproductions show.

Grand opera airs issued in the popular double-faced form by such an artist as Edith Helena have proven a most attractive feature of the Victor catalogue.

HEMPEL, FRIEDA, Soprano

HEMPEL

One of the most important recent engagements by the Victor was that of Frieda Hempel, the young colorature soprano of the Royal Opera House, Berlin. This young singer (she is not yet thirty), is a native of Leipsic, and as a child showed such musical talent that she was sent to the Leipsic Conservatory, where her unusual voice and great ambition caused her to make rapid progress. In 1906 she sang at Bayreuth as one of the Rhine maidens and in 1907 made a few appearances in London, but her formal début was in the autumn of 1907 at the Royal Opera House in Berlin. Mme. Hempel's success was immediate, Berlin opera-goers being delighted at the novelty of a colorature singer who possessed not only a lovely voice but youth and beauty as well. The public applauded her and the reviewers praised her. She rapidly became the chief coloratura singer of the opera; her repuation spread through Germany, Belgium and Holland; and she was in constant demand for concerts, where the purity of her voice and her command of the art of song were even more telling than in the opera house. She was ambitious and industrious and she steadily widened her repertory until it included the coloratura parts in the old Italian operas and in Mozart's lighter pieces. A year ago she distinguished herself as the Queen of the Night—a most difficult part to sing—in the revival of Mozart's Magic Flute under Dr. Muck.

The Victor, with its customary promptness, anticipated Mme. Hempel's American appearance with several fine records of her voice—including the great air from Huguenots, in which opera she has recently been heard at the Metropolitan, and the lovely number from the first act of Ernani, which displays admirably the quality and flexibility of this new soprano's voice.

HERBERT'S ORCHESTRA (Personally directed by Victor Herbert)

HERBERT

This famous director was born in Dublin in 1859, and at the age of seven, was sent to Stuttgart as a student of the 'cello. After some years' study and a tour of Europe, he accepted the position of solo 'cellist at the Metropolitan Opera in 1886. The Metropolitan Orchestra soon became too small for so talented a musician, and after having been bandmaster of the Twenty-Second Regiment Band, and Conductor of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Herbert organized in 1904 the Victor Herbert Orchestra, which has had a most successful career. All this time Mr. Herbert continued to compose operas, writing more than twenty-five, including his first grand opera, Natoma, produced at the Metropolitan two years ago, and his latest production, Madeleine, brought out in January, 1914.

Victor Herbert is beyond doubt the most brilliant and magnetic leader among Americans in his profession, being as much at home in music of the classic masters as in his own graceful and appealing opera strains. As he is a past master at giving the people what they want, his programs are never dull, but contain much popular music of merit, and those of the classic compositions which are known and appreciated by the average audience.

HILLIARD, ROBERT, American Actor

The Victor may be pardoned some evidence of pride, both in the exclusive engagement of Mr. Hilliard and in the really fine reproductions which have been made of his voice.

In his extracts from "A Fool There Was" Mr. Hilliard recites a part of "The Vampire," and between the lines he gives several scenes from the great play which is based on Kipling's poem. These highly dramatic extracts will be keenly appreciated by all those who have seen Mr. Hilliard's portrayal of the unfortunate husband, and it will bring to those who are only familiar with the poem a fuller understanding of Kipling's weird tale.

In striking contrast Mr. Hilliard has recited a portion of another of his great successes, the charming Littlest Girl.

HINKLE, FLORENCE, Soprano

During the past few seasons the name of Florence Hinkle has frequently appeared in the newspapers of the leading American cities in connection with musical events. The career of this young soprano indicates what may be accomplished by one having voice, voice control, temperament, intelligence and a personality that is engaging.

HINKLE

Her voice is a pure, lyric soprano of delightfully sympathetic quality, and she uses it with great skill. She produces her upper tones with perfect ease and with no diminution in quality of tone, and she phrases with unusual intelligence. Among the many important organizations with which Miss Hinkle has appeared during the past season were the Worcester Music Festival, the Mendelssohn Choir of Toronto, the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra, the Handel and Haydn Society of Boston, the New York Symphony Orchestra, the New York Oratorio Society, etc. That Miss Hinkle pleased the public may be gathered from the fact that she has been re-engaged by the majority of these organizations.

This soprano now makes records exclusively for the Victor.

HOMER, LOUISE, Contralto

This popular American contralto comes from Pittsburgh, where she was Louise Delworth Beatty, daughter of a well-known clergyman. She is now the wife of Sidney Homer, a composer of many fine songs, some of which Mme. Homer uses in her recitals.

Louise Homer obtained the foundation of her musical education in America, but spent two years in Paris before her début as Leonora in Favorita, in 1898. An engagement at Covent Garden, London, followed, and in 1899 she was secured by the Theatre de la Monnaie, Brussels, for a season of eight months.

Mme. Homer's contralto is of a rich quality and very even throughout. It is a splendid voice, one which has gained in richness and color from season to season.

HOPPER, DE WOLF, Comedian

HOPPER

Mr. Hopper has been persuaded to make us a record of his famous and immortal baseball classic, and it is the most perfect reproduction of the comedian's eccentric delivery which could be imagined. Shut your eyes and you can imagine the whole scene—five thousand of Mudville's fans yelling for their favorite—the redoubtable and mighty Casey standing proudly at the bat—the pitcher gripping the ball—then a moment of hushed expectancy—and then . . . and then the tragedy begins!

Let us draw the veil—suffice to say that you can actually feel the breeze on your face when the great Casey fans the air as he strikes out! Mr. Hopper's record of his celebrated baseball recitation has made one of the biggest hits in Victor history.

HUGUET, GIUSEPPINA, Soprano (Oo-geh')

HUGUET

Mme. Huguet is one of the most versatile of sopranos, her repertoire being a very large one, consisting of rôles in more than one hundred grand operas, besides many Zarzuelas (Spanish one-act operas) and operettas in which she has appeared with great success in her native Spain and in Italy. It was while singing in a Spanish operetta in Madrid that she was heard by a famous critic, who advised her to go to Italy for the study of serious operas. After two years in Milan she appeared in grand opera, scoring a triumph, and her name is now a familiar one to opera-goers in Europe, as well as to Victor owners in America, who have had the privilege of hearing her beautiful voice in many solos and concerted numbers.

NOTE.—Only Mme. Huguet's solo numbers are listed here. The duets, trios and other concerted numbers in which she appears will be found under the following operas: "Barber"—"Carmen"—"Dan Pasquale"—"Faust"—"Lohengrin"—"Lucia di Lammermaar"—"Masked Ball"—"Mefistofele"—"Pagliacci"—"Pearl Fishers"—"Rigoletto"—"Sonnambula"—"Traviata."

HYMNS—Standard and Revival

The extensive list of sacred music which the Victor has issued during the past few years has perhaps attracted more attention than any other single feature. This splendid catalogue of standard and gospel hymns, anthems and oratorio numbers is certain to have a powerful influence for good, not only in the homes of the serious-minded owners of Victors, but as a means of improving the quality of the music in small churches, where a competent choir is out of the question. The Victor's sacred records are capable of filling admirably the place of a choir, and this form of service is much to be preferred to the average small choir, which sometimes inspires feelings the reverse of devout!

Victors are being utilized more and more in small communities in place of a precentor, and no better method of leading congregational singing could be imagined, while in the family circle a collection of hymns and other sacred music is indispensable for Sunday use.

NOTE.—This list cantains hymns only. For other sacred numbers, such as "Holy City," "Palms," "Face to Face" and songs of that closs, also Anthems and Masses for church use, see Sacred Songs. For Oratoria numbers see titles of Oratorias. For Negro Revival Hymns see Fisk Jubilee Quartet. For Masonic and Modern Woodmen Hymns see "Masanic Records" and "Modern Woodmen." The letters opposite the hymn titles indicate that they may be found in the following standard hymnals and gospel hymn collections: (M) Methodist Hymnal; (P) Presbyterian Hymnal; (B) Baptist Hymnal; (E) Protestant Episcopal; (G) Gospel Hymns, 1 to 6; (R) Revival Hymns—used by Torrey and Alexander.

IRWIN, MAY, Comedienne

This popular comedienne is so closely associated with good humor and droll fun that the mere mention of her name is usually the signal for mirth. She invariably keeps her audience in a laughable mood with quaint witticisms and the inimitable way in which she sings her clever songs.

It is with pleasure, therefore, that we are able to announce several songs by this favorite entertainer. They are delivered in the delightfully humorous manner which has made Miss Irwin famous as a fun-maker.

This young Russian tenor, who has made such a success at the Metropolitan, and whose voice was so admired in the duet with Miss Farrar issued recently, has just made for the Victor several fine solos, five of which are now presented to the public.

Although Jadlowker is not likely to return to America this season, his fine records will continue to delight Victor audiences, the tenor having made a number of new selections before his departure.

JANIS, ELSIE, Comedienne

The Victor announces with much pleasure the engagement of one of the most charming and gifted women on the American stage, Elsie Janis.

Miss Janis was one of the stars of the "Lady of the Slipper" production, and the combination of Montgomery-Stone-Janis was certainly the strongest all-star feature in the musical comedy field.

The numbers selected by Miss Janis for her first records comprise three songs which she has recently been singing with much success—a clever Italian dialect song; an amusing "coon" song and the rollicking "Base Ball Slide."

JANPOLSKI, ALBERT, Baritone

Albert Gregorowich Janpolski, the Russian baritone, is well-known on the concert stage in America, his resonant and flexible voice and artistic singing being familiar to concert-goers.

Such is the interest that has lately been aroused in Russian music that Mr. Janpolski has been asked to sing for the Victor some of the well-known Russian folk songs which he has been using in his concerts. Six of these are presented here. These numbers are typical folk songs, most of the composers being unknown. Some of these melodies have been used by modern composers as themes.

JARVIS, HAROLD, Tenor

It is with pleasure that the Victor offers a number of solos by this favorite tenor. In the cities of Canada and the Middle States Mr. Jarvis is a great favorite, and with his Victor records has made new admirers.

Mr. Jarvis has given a sympathetic rendering of two English ballads and a beautiful old hymn; while a favorite old sea song is delivered in a spirited manner.

JOLSON, AL, Comedian

JOLSON

Although Al Jolson was well known as a black-faced comedian before he joined the Winter Garden Company, the opportunities afforded him at that house made New York realize that here was one of the best comedians ever heard on Broadway.

One of Mr. Jolson's greatest gifts is his really wonderful enunciation—no matter how quietly he speaks, every syllable is heard in the furtherest corner of the theatre. This is one reason why the Victor representative, after hearing him sing "Rum Tum Tiddle" and "That Haunting Melody," promptly asked the comedian if he would like to make some Victor records. He consented, and his first engagement resulted in several records which are irresistibly amusing.

JONES

No series of records in the entire Victor Catalogue have given more innocent pleasure to the public than the clever solos in various dialects by Miss Jones, the quaint German, Irish and other dialect specialties of Jones and Spencer, and the popular songs of the day given as duets by Miss Jones and Mr. Murray.

Whether Miss Jones' impersonation be that of a darky wench, a little German maiden, a "fresh" saleslady, a cowboy girl, a country damsel, Mrs. Flanagan or an Irish colleen, a Bowery tough girl, a newsboy or a grandmother, it is invariably a perfect one of its kind. Mr. Spencer is a highly-gifted entertainer, having all dialects at his command, and his original sketches have been enjoyed by countless hearers in the last fifteen years.

JOURNET, MARCEL, Bass (Zhur-nay')

Journet was born in 1868 at Nice. He studied under Seghettini and made his début at Bezieres, Belgium, in 1891, where M. Calabresi, manager of the Brussels La Monnaie, heard him and promptly engaged him for three years. He is perfectly at home in the French, German and Italian repertory, speaking the languages as a native. Journet is possessed of a magnificent voice, full and resonant, and has a fine stage presence.

This sterling artist is well known to opera-goers in America, as he was a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company for many years. In 1908 M. Journet was engaged by the Paris Opéra, and has since been one of the important members of that great company.

KIMBALL, AGNES, Soprano

KIMBALL

Another valuable addition to the Victor's superb list of opera records in English is now offered in the first records by Agnes Kimball, a dramatic soprano of unusual ability, whose singing was one of the features of a recent tour with the Victor Herbert Orchestra.

The soprano has given us the beautiful air of the unfortunate Butterfly sung in Act II. In the English version this is called the "Vision Song," as it describes her vision of the arrival of Pinkerton's ship. Mrs. Kimball has also given a fine rendition of the soprano air from Mendelssohn's Elijah, the favorite Prayer from Tosca, besides Cadman and Weil songs.

KREISLER, FRITZ, Violinist Cry'-zler

A most important Victor engagement is the exclusive arrangement with this famous violinist, who will make only Victor records during a term of years.

Kreisler was born in Vienna in 1875, and at the age of ten won the first prize at the Vienna Conservatory; and in his twelfth year astonished the professors at the Conservatoire in Paris by winning the Prix de Rome. As a boy prodigy, he toured America with Rosenthal, returning to Austria to serve his time in the army.

Kreisler revisited the United States in 1900, giving his first recital in Boston, December 18th. Other American tours followed in 1902, 1904, 1905 and 1907. The artist's last tour was literally a series of triumphs, and he has been proclaimed one of the few really great masters of the violin.

KUBELIK, JAN, Violinist (Koo'-bel-ik)

KUBELIK

One of the Victor's sensations for the 1911–1912 season was the announcement of an exclusive agreement with the famous Bohemian violinist, who will make records only for the Victor during a term of years.

This great artist was born in Michle, near Prague, on July 5, 1880. His father, an amateur violinist, began to teach him the violin when but five years old, and the boy made his first public appearance at the age of eight. When he was twelve he entered the Prague Conservatory, where he remained for six years. His wonderful success since that time is familiar to all, and he is now pronounced one of the most gifted artists of the century.

Kubelik's genius has been epoch-making in the history of violin playing, his whole style of performance being strikingly original. But novel as are his feats of virtuosity, his immense hold upon his audiences is chiefly due to his impressive individuality and the passionate warmth of his playing.

The records which he has made for the Victor exhibit well his firm, pure and beautiful tone, his admirable technique and the amazing ease and freedom of his playing. It is indeed fortunate for present-day music-lovers and for posterity that satisfactory reproductions of the art of this young virtuoso have at last been made.

The recent tour of this artist in conjunction with Mme. Melba has been a brilliant success and the Victor has recently offered two beautiful Melba-Kubelik records, the immortal Ave Maria of Gounod and the lovely air from Mozart's "Shepherd King."

LA FORGE

This brilliant young artist, whose sympathetic accompaniments and solos were such features of the Sembrich and Gadski concert tours, has made for the Victor a series of pianoforte solos, the first of which are now offered.

These numbers exhibit well this young pianist's command of technique and beautiful tone. The compositions are very popular light classics, and the fine reproductions the Victor has made have attracted much attention.

LAUDER, HARRY, Comedian

LAUDER

The success of this popular Scottish comedian in America has been phenomenal, and he is declared to be one of the greatest entertainers now before the public. To hear him sing his amusing songs and specialties, however, it is not necessary to visit the few cities where he appears, for the Victor now offers records of his best numbers. These records were recently made by Mr. Lauder at the Victor's Camden Laboratory, and are so natural that the hearer will be simply astonished, every word and whisper being absolutely distinct.

It is hard to define just what it is in Lauder's work that makes him so popular. But the secret probably is that he is simply natural, and bubbles over with wit and melody because he can't help it!

Under the terms of Mr. Lauder's new agreement, he will make no disc records of any kind except for the Victor. This is one of the most important engagements ever made by the Victor Company, Lauder being the highest salaried entertainer in the world.

Perhaps the best evidence of Lauder's value as an entertainer is the fact that he is, in vaudeville language, "booked solid" for the next eight years! Every week of the four hundred and sixteen is positively contracted for at a salary which, previous to Lauder's entrée, was never dreamed of by a vaudeville performer.

NOTE.—In many of Lauder's records he concludes by saying "Good Night." This expression in the Scotch dialect sounds very much like the slang term "Get next." However, it is "Gude Nicht," which the comedian is cordially saying!

LEMMONÉ, JOHN, Flutist (Lem-mo'-neh)

This famous soloist, whose Victor records have set a new standard for flute reproductions, is a native of Australia. Before he was sixteen he played first flute in the Italian opera, afterwards touring with Melba, Patti and Mme. Patey, going twice around the world.

Mr. Lemmoné went to Europe last year with Mme. Melba solely to engage the artists for the diva's season of opera in Australia, but he was persuaded to accompany her on the American concert tour, and his success has been very great.

LEMMONÉ

No flute reproductions ever issued have met with a fraction of the success which has greeted Mr. Lemmoné's artistic records.

LISZT, FRANZ (1811–1886), (List)

LISZT

Born 1811, Raiding, Hungary. Studied at first with father, an official at court and musical amateur. At 9 made first public appearance at Oedenburg with such success that wealthy citizens sent him to Vienna to study with Czerny. When 12 went to Paris; at 14 wrote an operetta, Don Sanche; well received. Began career as concert prodigy at 15. When 16 his father died and the boy supported the family. In 1839 began famous series concert tours lasting 12 years—brilliant playing and unique personality astonished all Europe—pronounced the greatest of pianists. In 1849 settled at Weimar and became conductor of Court Theatre, where his efforts made that city musical centre of Europe. Was warm friend of Wagner. Last 25 years spent in Weimar, Rome and Pesth. Created Abbé by Pope in 1866.

Liszt's compositions divided in two classes—entirely original matter and his famous transcriptions of songs and opera materials, which are numerous. Best known to general public for his Hungarian Rhapsodies—so called because built about melodies of romantic and poetic gypsies of Hungary. Liszt was familiar with their music, songs and dances, and his Rhapsodies, the result of childhood impressions, are Magyar melodies embellished with brilliant technical ornamentation. Of these fourteen wild and dashing "Rhapsodies" the Victor has recorded portions of No. 2, No. 9 and No. 12, all fascinating compositions. Liszt died at Bayreuth during the Wagner Festival of 1886.

LOHENGRIN (Loh'-en-grin) (Weimar, 1850) (Richard Wagner)

Opera in three acts; words and music by Wagner. First produced Weimar, Germany, 1850, under direction of Liszt. London production, 1875; Paris, 1887. First American production in Italian, 1874, with Nilsson, Cary, Campanini and Del Puente; in German, 1885, with Brant, Krauss, Fischer—this being Anton Seidl's American début as a conductor.

ELSA AND LOHENGRIN

Most of us are familiar with the story of the Knight Lohengrin, who comes in his boat, drawn by a swan, to defend Elsa from the charge (preferred by Telramund and Ortrud, who covet Elsa's estates) of having murdered her young brother, Godfrey. Telramund is vanquished and disgraced by Lohengrin, who wins Elsa as his bride. One condition he exacts from her—that she shall never ask who he is or whence he came. By the influence of Ortrud, however, she rashly questions him, and in fulfillment of his vow, but in deep grief, he is compelled to leave her and departs in his boat drawn by a dove. The ethereal Grail harmonies, the lovely Swan Motive, the noble Prayer of the King and the Bridal Chorus, make this one of the most melodious of all the master's operas.

LUCIA DI LAMMERMOOR (Loo-chee'-ah) (In Italian except as noted)

Opera in three acts; text by Salvator Cammerano; music by Donizetti. First production Naples, 1835; London, 1838; Paris, 1839; N. Y., 1843. The action takes place in Scotland; part in Ravenswood Castle, part in the ruined tower of Wolfscrag.

The plot of Lucia is founded on Sir Walter Scott's novel, The Bride of Lammermoor. Lord Henry Ashton, Lucy's brother, knowing nothing of her attachment to his enemy, Edgar of Ravenswood, has arranged a marriage between Lucy and the wealthy Lord Arthur, in order to retrieve his fallen fortunes. Learning that Lucy is in love with Edgar, he intercepts her lover's letters and executes a forged paper, which convinces Lucy that Edgar is false to her. Convinced of her lover's perfidy, and urged by the necessities of her brother, she unwillingly consents to wed Sir Arthur. The guests are assembled for the ceremony, and Lucy has just signed the contract, when Edgar appears and denounces Lucy for her fickleness. Edgar is driven from the castle, and the shock being too much for the gentle mind of Lucy, she becomes insane, kills her husband and dies. Edgar, overcome by these tragic happenings, visits the churchyard of Ravenswood and stabs himself among the tombs of his ancestors.

MACDONALD

Miss MacDonald, as the star of those dainty operettas "Spring Maid" and "Sweethearts," has made the biggest success of her career, and her impersonations of the Princess Bosena and Sylvia are two most charming ones.

The two greatest hits of the "Spring Maid" were "Day Dreams" and "Two Little Love Bees," and it is these numbers which Miss MacDonald has sung for the Victor, besides three of the most popular "Sweethearts" numbers. Her clear and sweet voice is perfectly recorded, and these reproductions will delight those who will not have an opportunity to hear her in person; while the fortunate ones who have seen these operas will find in the records a delightful souvenir of a pleasant evening.

Miss MacDonald has consented to sing exclusively for the Victor.

MACDONOUGH, HARRY, Tenor

MACDONOUGH

Mr. Macdonough is one of the most popular singers on the Victor staff, and his list of Victor records contains a wide range of selections, both standard and popular, consisting of solos (ballads, sacred songs, hymns, and concert songs) and many duets and quartets with various other Victor singers.

This tenor's correct method of singing and the clearness of his diction are most refreshing at a time when indifferent vocalization and careless enunciation are so much in evidence. Mr. Macdonough makes records exclusively for the Victor.

LANDE — SETTING OF ACT 1 — VICTOR BOOK OF THE OPERA

MANON (Massenet) Sung in French unless otherwise noted

Opera in four acts; words by Meilhac and Gille, after Abbé Prévost's novel. First production, Paris, 1884; London, 1885. First U. S. production 1885, with Hauk, Giannini and Del Puente. Some notable revivals—1895, with Sanderson and de Reszke; 1899, with Saville, Van Dyk and Plançon; and the recent Metropolitan production, with Caruso and Farrar.

Manon is a country girl, gay, pretty and thoughtless, who meets a handsome young cavalier, des Grieux, while on her way to a convent to complete her education. He falls in love with her and she with him as far as her nature will allow, and when he tells her of the gaieties and pleasures of Paris, she needs little persuasion to induce her to elope with him to the Capital. Soon tiring of love in a cottage, however, the young girl encourages the attentions of a rich nobleman, de Brétigny, and when des Grieux is taken away forcibly by his father, she seizes the opportunity and leaves with her new lover. In Act III she learns that des Grieux, despondent because of her faithlessness, has resolved to enter a monastery. Her fickle affections turn again to him, and she visits him at the Seminary of St. Sulpice. He at first repulses her, saying his love is dead, but he is unable to resist her, and they depart together. The next act occurs in a gambling house, where des Grieux is endeavoring to win money to support Manon in the luxury she demands. Guillot, a roué, in revenge for a trick played on him in Act I, causes their arrest, des Grieux for cheating and Manon as a dissolute woman. The last scene occurs on the road to Havre, where des Grieux and Lescaut, Manon's brother, plan to rescue Manon as she is being taken to the ship, en route for the prison colony in Louisiana. The soldiers appear, but it is a dying Manon they escort, and the unfortunate girl, after asking forgiveness of des Grieux, dies in his arms.

MANON LESCAUT (Man-on' Les-koh') (Puccini) Sung in Italian

Opera in four acts; music by Giacomo Puccini; the libretto, founded on Abbé Prévost's novel, being mainly the work of the composer. First presented at Turin, 1893; Covent Garden, 1894; first American production, 1898, in English by the Hinrich's Opera Company. First performance in Italian occurred at the Metropolitan Opera House in 1907, under the general direction of Puccini himself, the cast including Caruso and Farrar.

The Abbé Prévost romance has been treated operatically by several composers, the first being Halévy, who wrote a ballet on the subject in 1830. Other settings followed—by Balfe, 1836; Auber in 1856 and Massenet in 1884.

The first act shows the courtyard of an inn at Amiens. Manon's brother, Lescaut, a dissolute soldier, is escorting his pretty little sister to the convent where she is to complete her education. While Lescaut is carousing with some chance companions, Manon meets a handsome gallant, des Grieux, who chances to be dining at the inn, dressed as a student. The prospect of school not appealing very strongly to the young girl, she readily agrees to elope with des Grieux, thereby spoiling the plans of the old roué, Geronte, who had planned to abduct the pretty school girl. Manon soon tires of des Grieux and his poverty, and leaves him for the wealthy Geronte; but even this luxury fails to bring her happiness, and when des Grieux appears again she runs away with him. Geronte is furious and denounces Manon to the police as an abandoned woman. She is condemned to be deported to the French possessions in Louisiana. Des Grieux and Lescaut try to rescue her, but the attempt fails, and in desperation the former begs the Commandant to permit him to accompany her to America. In the final scene the lovers are shown in a desert near New Orleans. (The Abbé Prévost's knowledge of American geography was evidently limited!) Des Grieux leaves Manon to search for water, and returns just in time to see her die in his arms, after a most affecting scene.

MARSH, LUCY ISABELLE, Soprano

The career of Lucy Marsh is another demonstration of what may be accomplished by an American girl under an American teacher. No one who listens to her faultless sin ing can but feel gratification that both pupil and teacher are native born.

Miss Marsh's voice is a lyric soprano of exceptional beauty, and its exquisite purity, smoothness and flexibility are delightful to hear. Her teacher, John Walter Hall, is most enthusiastic over the success of his pupil, and with good reason considers her voice one of the loveliest now before the public.

Miss Marsh's flawless technique, the absolute purity of the soprano tones, and her perfect intonation always give the keenest delight to the appreciative listener.

The Victor has secured the exclusive services of this artist, and now presents a number of selections by her.

MARTINELLI, GIOVANNI, Tenor

COPYT MISHKIN
MARTINELLI

This young artist has made a notable success at the Metropolitan, and has been pronounced one of the best Italian tenors ever heard in America. He is a native of the province of Venezia, and was born in Montagnana. His father was a cabinet-maker in the village and had no means of giving his son a musical education, although the boy was passionately fond of music. He managed to learn the clarinet and finally joined the regimental band, where the director discovered that the young player had a remarkable voice. When his time of service was completed he went to Milan, where he soon found friends who sent him to Professor Mandolini. This teacher trained the young man's naturally beautiful voice, and he soon made his début at the Dal Verme as Ernani. Here he was heard by Puccini and Toscanini, who engaged him for The Girl of the Golden West at Rome. A Covent Garden engagement followed, where the critics discovered they had secured a tenor of the very first class.

As America eventually gets the best in every line, Martinelli naturally came to the Metropolitan; and the Victor, which also invariably acquires the best singers for Victor audiences, promptly secured the exclusive services of the young tenor.

The first two records, which are now presented, will easily prove what a fine artist American audiences have gained.

MARTIN

Riccardo Martin enjoys the distinction of being the first American tenor to be engaged for leading rôles at the Metropolitan Opera House. This young artist was born in Kentucky, and quite early in life seemed to have considerable talent as a composer. His parents sent him abroad for study, and after spending several years in Italy and Germany, he opened a studio in New York, devoting himself to composition and teaching.

It was during this period that young Martin discovered that he had a voice worth cultivating, and on the advice of Dr. Holbrook Curtis, went to Paris, where he studied with Sbriglia and Jean de Reszke. His début in opera took place in Nantes, France, in 1904, when he sang Faust. Later, in Verona, he appeared in Andrea Chenier with such success that he was engaged for Mr. Russell's San Carlo Opera Company, which toured the United States in 1906-1907. Martin's triumph with this company made his Metropolitan engagement a foregone conclusion, and in the summer of 1907 he was signed for a term of years.

The Victor has secured the exclusive services of this young singer for disc records, and now presents a fine list of selections by him.

(Mahtz'-en-auer)

MATZENAUER

Mme. Matzenauer has been one of the sensations of the recent Metropolitan season, and her impersonations, especially in the Wagnerian rôles, have called forth universal praise from critics and public alike. She has impressed lovers of Italian opera as well as German with her splendid voice, her musical intelligence and her dramatic power.

This singer, who calls herself a dramatic mezzo-soprano, made her début in Oberon at Strassburg, where she remained three years, singing many rôles, and was then engaged for the Berlin opera, of which organization she is still a member, being released for part of each season for her American engagements.

Mme. Matzenauer's ambition is to become a dramatic soprano and she has already sung a number of soprano rôles, among them Donna Elvira, Selika, Carmen and Brünnhilde. The Victor has secured the exclusive record services of this singer, and now announces the first of a series of records by her. They are wonderful reproductions of one of the greatest voices ever heard in America, and should be in every collection of records.

MC CORMACK

The rise to fame of this young tenor is one of the most remarkable incidents in the history of opera.

Nine years ago McCormack was entirely unknown to the musical world. He was born in Athlone, and grew up and went through college without discovering that he had a voice of more than usual merit. But one day he was induced to compete at the Dublin Musical Festival, where competitions in singing are held and medals granted to the most proficient. McCormack astonished himself and friends by carrying off the first prize.

The tenor then gave several concerts, and with the proceeds went to Italy to study. After a number of appearances in Italian cities, he returned to London in 1907 and was engaged for Covent Garden, making his London début as Turiddu on October 15th. A few weeks later he sang in Rigoletto with Mme. Tetrazzini, who was delighted with his beautiful voice and gave him much advice and assistance, with the result that he was engaged for the season. His succeeding triumphs at Covent Garden and in America are familiar to all.

This artist's ballad records have made one of the greatest successes in the history of Victor Red Seal records, his beautiful voice and clear enunciation being especially attractive in this field. The operatic airs are given in the purest of Italian, which the tenor sings like a native.

Mr. McCormack's recent Australian tour was a tremendous success, and it was with great reluctance that the Australian public allowed the tenor to depart for America to fill his engagements. He arrived in Vancouver on February 5th, and after appearing in Victoria, Portland, Seattle, San Francisco (four concerts) and other cities en route to the East, he gave his annual concert at the New York Hippodrome, on March 15th, to one of the greatest and most enthusiastic audiences ever seen in that immense structure.

Feeling that only the Victor was able to faithfully reproduce his voice, Mr. McCormack has entered into an exclusive agreement with the Victor Company for a long period of years.

Mr. McCormack will spend an entire week in the Victor Recording Laboratory in April, and many new records will doubtless be offered during the year to the countless admirers of this favorite singer.

MELBA, NELLIE, Soprano

MELBA

No prima donna of the present day has ever been so beloved in three continents as has this Australian artist.

It was on December 5, 1893, in New York, that Melba was revealed to the American public. Who that was present will ever forget the marvelous voice that burst on their charmed ears at that time? Such power and brilliancy, such captivating ease of execution, such warmth and loveliness were simply astonishing. Music-lovers took the singer to their hearts that night, and to-day she is more firmly intrenched in their affection than ever.

Melba was born Nellie Mitchell, at Burnley, near Melbourne, Australia. The singer went to Europe in 1886, and began to study under Mme. Marchesi, making such rapid progress that her début was made in Brussels in 1887 under the name of Melba (derived, of course, from her native city), and her success was immediate.

Melba is to-day singing with the same delightful freshness, purity and power that have enthralled her audiences in the past. Her recent stay in America was all too brief and her countless admirers were loath to let her go, but her operatic tour of Australia forced her to sail for that country.

It is a matter for congratulation that the Melba records have been secured when the great singer was at her best, so that posterity will hear her in the full tide of her powers. Melba, like all the greatest singers of the world, makes records exclusively for the Victor.

MICHAILOWA, MARIE, Soprano (Misch-ih-low'-ah)

MICHAILOWA

This gifted Russian soprano is one of the most popular singers on the Victor List, and a short sketch of her career will doubtless be interesting.

Marie Alexandrowna Michailowa was born in Little Russia, in the south of the Empire, and made her first appearance in Charkow when quite a young girl. She then went to St. Petersburg for further study, where her unusually beautiful voice quickly attracted the attention of the critics. At the close of her Conservatory studies, she was engaged at the Imperial Opera House (Theatre Imperial de St. Petersbourg), soon becoming the chief prima donna, a position which she held more than fifteen years. Her voice is an unusually beautiful and sympathetic one and of a velvety softness.

MIGNON (Meen-yon') (Paris, 1866) (Ambroise Thomas)

Opera in three acts; text by Barbier and Carre, based upon Goethe's Wilhelm Meister; music by Ambroise Thomas. First production, Paris, 1866; London, 1870; New York, 1872, with Nilsson, Duval and Capoul.

Mignon, the daughter of an Italian noble, is stolen in her childhood by the gypsies, and her father, partially demented because of grief, calls himself the harper Lothario, and wanders for years in search of his daughter.

The first act opens in the yard of a German inn. A group of actors, including the beautiful Filina, are on their way to the Prince's castle, where they are to give a performance. A strolling band of gypsies arrive, and Mignon, who is with them, is ordered to dance for the entertainment of the guests. The girl is weary, and on her refusal to dance, Giarno, the leader, threatens her. Lothario tries to protect the young girl, and Giarno turns upon the old man.

Wilhelm, a wandering student, appears and rescues both Mignon and the harper, and to save the girl from further persecution engages her as his page. Wilhelm is invited by Filina to join the troupe in their visit to the castle. He consents, and the flirtation which follows arouses the jealousy of Mignon, who, touched by Wilhelm's kindness, has fallen in love with him. In despair she is about to throw herself into the lake when she hears the notes of Lothario's harp. She asks his protection, and rashly tells him she wishes the castle would burn to the ground. The demented old man, thinking only to please her, goes into the castle. Filina and the actors appear, and Filina sends Mignon to the castle for some flowers she has left there. Suddenly flames burst from the windows, and Wilhelm rushes to the burning building and carries out the unconscious Mignon. Wilhelm is soon cured of his infatuation for Filina and discovers Mignon's devoted attachment for him.

In the third act, which takes place in the palace of Lothario, who has returned to his ancestral home, bringing with him Mignon, the young girl is soon discovered to be the long lost child of Lothario, who suddenly recovers his reason and gives his consent and blessing to her marriage with Wilhelm.

MILLER, REED, Tenor

MILLER

It is with much pleasure that the Victor announces the engagement of Mr. Reed Miller, the well-known concert tenor, whose beautiful voice, admirable diction and correct method have earned for him a large following of musical people. Some of Mr. Miller's recent engagements show in what favor he is held by concert-goers. Besides his regular engagement as solo tenor of the Brick Presbyterian Church of New York City, he has lately sung at the Spartanburg and Greensboro Festivals; Musical Art Society, Pittsburgh; with Damrosch and the New York Symphony; at the Worcester Festival, etc. The numbers selected for his Victor list by Mr. Miller are most attractive ones, and consist of a number of standard and sacred songs, besides several duets with Mr. Werrenrath.

MINSTREL RECORDS—By Victor Minstrel Company
NOTE.—Lively and entertaining "tabloids" of minstrelsy, full of snappy repartee and tuneful singing. Don't get these minstrel records expecting to hear sweet and soothing music—it isn't that kind! But the records are good entertainment for a jolly party of hearers who like vigorous singing and perfectly obvious jokes—the point of which can be grasped by the average hearer without the aid of a map! Rousing bits of comedy and melody by a talented bunch of singers and comedians.

MONTGOMERY and STONE, Comedians

COPY'T MOFFETT DAVE AND FRED

Like Damon and Pythias are David Craig Montgomery and Frederick A. Stone, and have been ever since the birth of the partnership at Kansas City sixteen years ago, when the two clever Western youths agreed to appear together as a song-and-dance team.

One of the reasons why the work of these clever comedians is so enjoyable is the pleasure which they take in it themselves, and this is fully apparent in the clever skits which they have made for the Victor.

MOZART, WOLFGANG (1756–1791) (Moh'-tsart)

MOZART

Born 1756, Salzburg. Son of musician and teacher. When 4 could play piano, at 6 wrote a concerto. Learned violin and traveled as a prodigy. At 11 wrote an opera, never given. At 12 concertmeister of Salzburg church, and wrote several masses. When 13 went Italy, where the young genius astonished by his musical knowledge. Was knighted by Pope. Produced and conducted his opera Mitridate, 1770. Returned Germany, and in 1782 married Constance Weber. Period of poverty followed, ended by production in 1786 of Marriage of Figaro. This success followed by greatest work, Don Giovonni, in 1787. Other operas were Cosi and Titus, not successful. In spite of failing health from overwork wrote Magic Flute, produced 1791, and died some months later. Besides operas wrote much sacred and chamber music, many orchestral works, etc.

MURPHY, LAMBERT, Tenor

PHOTO MISHKIN

MURPHY

Lambert Murphy is an American, and was born in the city of Springfield, Mass. As a boy he sang in church choirs, and later, while at Harvard University, took much interest in musical matters. During his senior year at Harvard he commenced his concert career, continuing it for two seasons after his graduation in 1908, and filling many important engagements, including concerts of the Boston Festival Orchestra (three successive seasons), and the Handel and Haydn Society. He was soloist at St. Bartholomew's Church, New York, but resigned his position there when he went to the Metropolitan in 1911, in order to devote his time entirely to operatic work. Mr. Murphy is naturally endowed with a tenor of unusually pure quality, which, during his brief professional career, has developed in richness, warmth and color.

MURRAY, BILLY, Comedian

For duets with other singers see "Jones and Murray," "Morris and "Porter" For quartets in which Murray sings see "American Quartet"

MURRAY

Billy Murray is one of the most successful of all American singers of humorous songs, and probably entertains, through his Victor records, a larger audience than any other singer who has ever lived. His Irish songs, with just a touch of quaint and fascinating brogue; the rapid-fire type of comic song with no breathing places (Billy never seems to take breath!); the topical song, which presents the follies of the time in humorous fashion; popular sentimental songs; dialect specialties—no matter what the line of work he undertakes it is sure to be cleverly done. His enunciation is simply wonderful; there is never any doubt as to a single syllable when Murray sings it!

Mr. Murray, by far the most successful record maker in his particular field, makes disc records exclusively for the Victor.

NEAPOLITAN TRIO—Violin, Harp, Flute

Nothing, perhaps, that the Victor has done in years has so pleased the public as the making of the fine series of violin, flute and harp trios by the Neapolitan Trio, which have been pronounced perfect examples of pure music. The new organization which the Victor has assembled for these instrumental trios has made several sweet-toned and altogether delightful reproductions, and the records should be secured by every music lover.

NIELSEN, ALICE, Soprano

Miss Nielsen, though eminently successful several years ago in light opera, was very ambitious and became dissatisfied with her work, feeling that she could make no further progress. She therefore abruptly ended her career as a comic opera star, to the great disappointment of American audiences, and began patiently to study for grand opera. What she has accomplished is now a matter of history, and the beautiful records she has made for the Victor speak eloquently of the wonderful progress she has made.

The soprano is now singing in concert and fills only special engagements in opera.

O

NOTE.—In listing the many selections beginning with the word O or Oh, this rule has been observed: In all foreign titles the word is written O, and in English titles Oh, as is customary. For example, if you want "O sole mio," or "Oh, Dry Those Tears" do not look for "Oh sole mio"—or "O Dry Those Tears."

OCARINA RECORDS—BY MOSÉ TAPIERO

The despised ocarina, sometimes flippantly called the "musical sweet potato," has suddenly risen to the rank of a musical instrument, at least in the hands of a gifted Italian performer, for Signor Tapiero certainly does some most remarkable things with this little wind instrument. It seems astonishing that such effects can be produced from so simple an affair as a "hollow sweet potato with holes in it," as some one has described the instrument. These records are very, very loud—use a half-tone needle unless you are on the deck of your private yacht!

OFFENBACH, JACQUES, (Of'-fen-bach)

OFFENBACH

Born Offenbach-on-Main, June 21, 1819. Son of Cantor of Jewish synagogue, Cologne. Went to Paris in youth. In 1833 studied 'cello at Conservatoire; and played in orchestra of Opéra Comique. Wrote some successful songs and became conductor at Theatre Francaise. Not much learning, but witty. Compositions number ninety, mostly light operas written in twenty-five years. Best known operas Grand Duchesse, La Belle Helene, Madame Favart, all formerly popular here. Only work now in vogue in America is Tales of Hoffman, revived by Hammerstein in 1907, now in Philadelphia-Chicago repertoire, and in English by Aborn Opera Company. Offenbach visited America in 1875. Died in Paris, 1880.

PADEREWSKI, IGNACE JAN, Pianist (Pad-er-ef'-skee)

COPY'T DAVIS & SANFORD

PADEREWSKI

The Victor Company begs to announce that Ignace Jan Paderewski, the most gifted and remarkable pianist the world has ever known, has agreed to make records exclusively for the Victor during a long term of years, and the first of the records produced under this agreement are now offered.

Five numbers which are always prime favorites at the Paderewski concerts have been chosen by him for his first representation in the Victor lists. The first is the graceful valse which at his concerts always forms part of the eagerly awaited Chopin group, the second is the familiar and beloved minuet, which the virtuoso does not usually include in his printed programmes, and the third a famous Schubert-Liszt piece.

The pianist has also played two Liszt numbers, the beautiful Etude in F minor, and the favorite Campanella.

The Paderewski who plays to us in these records is the same Paderewski as of yore—with his wonderful delicacy of touch, his beautiful singing tone, his moods and eccentricities, and his power to stir the emotion and charm the senses of his hearers.

PAGLIACCI, I (Pahl-yat'-chee) The Players (In Italian unless otherwise noted)

Dramatic opera in two acts; libretto and music both by Ruggiero Leoncavallo. First production, Milan, 1892; London, 1893; first American production, 1894, with Kronold, Montegriffo and Campanari. The scene is laid in Calabria, between 1865 and 1870.

During the orchestral introduction Tonio, in clown costume, appears and explains that the subject of the play is taken from real life; reminds the audience that actors are but men, with passions like their own, and that the author has endeavored to express the real feelings and sentiments of the characters he will introduce. He then orders up the curtain. The first act shows the entrance to an Italian village. Canio, and his troupe of strolling players, or pagliacci, having paraded through the village, now announce a performance for that evening at seven, and Canio goes with Peppe into the tavern. Tonio, the clown, remains behind, ostensibly to care for the donkey, but in reality to make love to Nedda, Canio's wife. She repulses him, striking him with her whip, and he swears to be revenged. Silvio, a rich young villager, in love with Nedda, now joins her and begs her to fly with him. She refuses, but admits that she loves him, her confession being overheard by Tonio, who hurries in search of his master. Canio returns too late to catch Silvio, but mad with jealousy, he demands the lover's name, and when Nedda refuses, tries to kill her, but is restrained by the others. Nedda goes to dress, and Canio is in despair at the thought of being obliged to play while his heart is breaking.

LE THÉATRE — ARRIVAL OF THE PLAYERS — VICTOR BOOK OF THE OPERA

Act II. The audience is now assembled and the play begins. This proves to be the usual farce in which the clown makes love to Columbine during the absence of her husband, Punchiello. Strangely enough, this conventional farce is very like the situation in the real lives of the players, and when Punchiello (Canio) arrives and surprises the lovers, as the play demands, he loses his head as he hears Columbine repeat in the farce the very words Tonio had heard her say to the real lover earlier in the day. Mad with rage, he again demands her lover's name. Nedda tries to save the situation by continuing the play, and the audience is delighted by such realistic acting, until the intensity of Canio's passion begins to terrify them. The other players endeavor to silence him, but in vain. Finally, stung by his taunts, Nedda defies him and is stabbed, Canio hoping that in her death agony she will reveal the name of her lover. She falls, calling upon Silvio, who rushes from the crowd only to receive in turn the dagger of the outraged husband. As Canio is disarmed by the peasants he cries, as if in a daze, "The comedy is ended."

PATTI, ADELINA, Soprano

Adelina Patti spent so much of her youth in this country that she is frequently spoken of as an American. As a matter of fact, she was born in Madrid, Spain, February 19, 1843. Her father, anxious to try his fortunes in the new world, came here when Adelina was ten years old, and became manager of the Italian Opera House in Chambers Street, New York. At the age of sixteen Patti made her operatic début in New York, on November 24, 1859, in Lucia and achieved a tremendous success. Patti's further career was a wonderful one, and the mere recital of her triumphs would fill a volume. No other singer was ever so long before the public and none was ever so successful in preserving an unimpaired voice. Patti took the best of care of her voice; she had complete control of it through her resolution never to force it and to sing only what was adapted to her style. For this reason she wisely avoided Wagner and seldom essayed dramatic rôles such as Aida or Leonora. Mme. Patti has sung for the Victor some of the beloved old songs with which she has delighted millions of her hearers in past years.

PATTI

PEERLESS QUARTET

This popular singing organization has made a number of fine records for the Victor catalogue, and the manner in which these selections have been rendered has made the Peerless a welcome feature of the entertainment staff. The late Frank C. Stanley was the organizer and manager of the Peerless for many years, and many of the records listed below were made by the Quartet during the life of this popular basso.

PIETRO (PIETRO DEIRO) Accordionist

PIETRO

To say that the Victor's Pietro records have made a "hit" is putting it but mildly, and that much-abused word "furore" might even be used. That no such accordion playing has ever been reproduced on records is the universal opinion of customers who have heard the fine numbers already issued.

The overtures especially have caused a sensation, and they give one an idea of the wonderful instrument used by Pietro—which he calls a "piano-accordion." It might be called also a full military band and an orchestra, judging by the effects produced.

Pursuing its usual policy of always giving Victor customers the best, Pietro, being the greatest accordionist in the world, has been engaged to make Victor records exclusively.

PILZER, MAXIMILIAN, Violinist

Mr. Pilzer is a New Yorker by birth, and the foundation of his musical education was laid by Henry Schradieck, then a resident of New York. While still very young, however, he was sent to Berlin, where he attracted the attention of the great Joachim, who took the lad under his protection.

Since returning to his native land, Pilzer has acted as concertmaster of the Russian Symphony Orchestra and the People's Symphony Orchestra, appearing also as soloist with these organizations. The violinist's joint tour with Phillip Spooner has brought him to the attention of concert-goers in the East. The list of records offered by the Victor exhibits in a marked degree the fine playing of this young artist.

PLANÇON, POL, Bass (Plahn'-son) (nasal)

COPY'T DUPONT PLANÇON

This accomplished and popular singer was born in the Ardennes, where his boyhood was spent. His father did not sympathize with his professional ambitions, intending him for a merchant. Incurring the displeasure of his family, he entered the Ecole Duprez through the influence of Ritter. Duprez, who was then the greatest living teacher of diction, taught young Plançon in the most thorough manner, and no artist of the present generation sang with more artistic finish, and with more careful attention to enunciation, phrasing and expression.

The name of Plançon recalls delightful memories of a graceful and impressive figure, superb acting, artistic singing; clear-cut enunciation, whether in French, German, or Italian and pervading all, a great personal magnetism.

POLICE BAND OF MEXICO CITY

PRESA

Our neighboring country across the Rio Grande is noted for the great number and high quality of its band organizations, and every city and town has its military band, which plays regularly in the plazas or parks for the enjoyment of the people. The greatest of these bands is the Police Band or Banda de Policia of the City of Mexico, which, under the careful leadership of Señor Presa, has become one of the most famous military bands in the world.

The Victor now offers several records of this organization, which display well the precision and fine tone for which it is celebrated. Señor Presa conducted the band in person during this engagement.

POLITICAL ADDRESSES—See also "Bryan," "Clark" and "Taft"

The Republican, Democratic and Progressive candidates decided during the recent campaign to present their views to the people through that greatest of all public mediums, the Victor, which brought directly into the home the actual voices of the aspirants for Presidential honors.

For the first time in the history of our country, the Victor made it possible for the people in all parts of our country to hear the actual voices of three nominees in a discussion of the principles involved in the campaign. This debate, an intensely interesting one, fills eighteen records, most of which have been combined in double-faced form, thus insuring the widest publicity for the discussion.

The Victor made no comment on the political situation, but merely offered the views of the candidates, so that each citizen was helped to a wise decision.

PORTER, STEVE—Comic Songs and Specialties

Mr. Porter is one of the pioneer makers of talking machine records, having been engaged in this work since 1897. He is a most versatile singer and comedian, and an experienced male quartet member. His work in the American Quartet is of the greatest value to that organization and his famous Irish and other dialect specialties have been much enjoyed by lovers of clean comedy.

POWELL, MAUD, Violinist

All Americans have reason to be proud of the achievements of their distinguished countrywoman, Maud Powell. From East to West audiences flock to hear her, and are delighted by her flawless playing; while her charming and gracious personality wholly fascinates those who are fortunate enough to meet her.

POWELL

As Hubbard recently said in the Chicago Tribune: "Miss Powell is such a comfortable artist—there is nothing of pose or virtuoso affectation or airs about her. She loves the work she is doing, and her heart, soul and mind are wholly in it. She is a virtuoso in technique and ability, but an artist and musician in spirit."

The Powell reproductions which have been issued by the Victor are actual reproductions of the masterly playing of this artist.

RATTAY, HOWARD, Violinist

RATTAY

Mr. Rattay, who is one of the most prominent violinists of Philadelphia, is a pupil of Joachim, having spent several years under the tuition of that distinguished master of the violin. Several years ago Mr. Rattay was persuaded to become the concertmeister of the Victor Orchestra, and his splendid work in that organization is familiar to Victor audiences, both in his solos and in the accompaniments for Victor singers. For Mr. Rattay's records see "Violin Records" and "Instrumental Duets"

COPYT OUPONT

REISS

This gifted tenor and comedian is one of the most useful members of the Metropolitan Opera Company, and during the past few years has been seen in a large number of important rôles. Some of his most famous impersonations are that of Mime, a wonderful character study—sardonic, malignant and fawningly malicious; David, an appealing and sweet-voiced apprentice; and The Witch in Hansel and Gretel, in which part he tries his best to conceal his fine tenor voice, giving a most humorous performance.

Whatever part Mr. Reiss essays, it is always an artistic portrayal, and he has set a standard at the Metropolitan in tenor comedy rôles which it will be difficult to approach.

REITZ, W. H., Xylophone and Bell Solos (Rights)

REITZ

It has always been the impression of the average xylophone player that he alone among instrumental soloists was privileged to "drop" notes ad libitum—at least so audiences have come to believe! But Mr. Reitz has shown, in the series of records he has made for the Victor, that accuracy is just as possible in "wooden music" as with other instruments.

The Reitz-Victor xylophone records are the finest ever made anywhere, both in tone and accuracy of playing. Mr. Reitz has lately played a number of charming selections on the orchestra bells. For the Reitz records see "Bell Solos" and "Xylophone Solos." This player makes records exclusively for the Victor.

RENAUD, MAURICE, Baritone

COPY'T MISHKIN

RENAUD

Maurice Renaud is one of the greatest baritones Europe has ever produced. Born in Bordeaux in 1862, he was sent to the Paris Conservatoire at the age of nineteen, and made his début two years later at Brussels in Reyer's opera, Sigurd. After seven years at Brussels, he went to the Paris Opera Comique, and in the following year was engaged for the Opéra.

Renaud made a pronounced success some years ago with the Manhattan and Metropolitan Companies, giving masterly interpretations of such rôles as Herod and Rigoletto.

THE QUARTET—ACT III

The story tells of the gay and unprincipled Duke of Mantua, who is assisted in his crimes by his jester, Rigoletto, a hunchback. The father of one of the Duke's victims is mocked by Rigoletto, and launches upon him a father's awful curse, which stuns and sobers the jester, as he, too, has a daughter, Gilda, unknown to the court. On his way home Rigoletto meets a professional assassin, Sparafucile, who offers, for a price, to kill any enemy he may have. Rigoletto says he may need him later. The Duke, in the guise of a young student, has already met Gilda, not knowing who she is, and the young girl has fallen in love with him. When Rigoletto has left the house the Duke's courtiers abduct Gilda and take her to the Palace. The father's rage is terrible to witness, and he goes to the Palace, but too late to save his daughter. She pleads for the Duke's life, but Rigoletto swears to kill him, and arranges with the assassin, Sparafucile, to accomplish the deed. The Duke is lured to a lonely inn by Sparafucile's attractive sister, Maddalena, and is about to be murdered when Maddalena, who has taken a fancy to him, begs for his life. Sparafucile consents provided a substitute should happen along before midnight. Gilda, whom Rigoletto had brought hither (disguised as a page) in order that she might witness the fickleness of her lover, has been listening to the conversation, and now resolves to save the Duke's life at the cost of her own. She enters the hut, is stabbed by Sparafucile, who delivers the body to Rigoletto according to agreement. Rigoletto is about to cast the body into the river when he hears the Duke's voice in the distance. The wretched man opens the sack, sees his daughter and falls senseless on her body.

RILEY

James Whitcomb Riley, familiarly called "The Hoosier Poet," for years has played upon the heart strings of countless thousands of admirers in all parts of the world, and they have responded with laughter or tears, as he has commanded. His poems are probably better known in the homes of all classes of people than those of any other writer—and all who have had the privilege of hearing him read his poems can never forget the experience.

The announcement that this beloved writer, who through illness is no longer able to appear on the lecture platform, had made a number of records for the Victor, aroused widespread interest among his admirers. Mr. Riley has selected for his first records four of his most familiar and best-loved poems.

RING, BLANCHE, Comedienne

RING

It is hardly necessary to say anything about this charming and gifted comedy star. From the time when she made her first success in "The Belle of Avenue A," following it with those famous classics, "In the Good Old Summer Time" and "Bedelia," she has been a public favorite. Whether she sings or dances, in her occasional serious moments, as well as in comedy, she is charming, and no woman on the stage to-day can sing a humorous song better than this artist.

The Victor possesses the exclusive right to Miss Ring's services for a term of years.

RODEHEAVER, HOMER, Baritone

RODEHEAVER

Every one of the hundreds of thousands who have attended the revival meetings of "Billy" Sunday, the former baseball star, who forsook the diamond for the saving of souls, is familiar with the genial, big-voiced baritone who at these services sang revival hymns so sweetly and clearly.

Homer Rodeheaver is a Southerner who began his career in a mountain log camp, and in later years learned the trombone and played in the 4th Tennessee Band, going with them to the Spanish-American War. After singing and playing his way through the Ohio Wesleyan University, he leaned toward the law, but was induced to enter the evangelical field. This is his fourth season with Mr. Sunday, and as musical director he has charge of some of the largest choruses in the world, ranging from seven hundred to two thousand.

The Victor has persuaded Mr. Rodeheaver to record a number of these hymns, so that persons in cities which Mr. Sunday cannot visit will be able to hear the impressive work of this popular singer-evangelist.

ROGERS, WALTER B., Musical Director of the Victor Recording Laboratory

ROGERS

The career of this brilliant young conductor has been one of uninterrupted success. After some years of study in the Cincinnati College of Music he joined Cappa's Seventh Regiment Band of New York as cornet soloist, and during the years that followed he was one of the great features of that famous band. On the death of Bandmaster Cappa, Mr. Rogers became the leader of the band and served four years in that capacity. In 1899 John Philip Sousa made him a flattering offer and he became the cornet soloist of Sousa's Band.

After five successful years with Sousa, the Victor Company induced Mr. Rogers to leave the band and become its general Director of Music.

RUFFO

This famous Italian baritone, who for several years past has been one of the operatic sensations of Europe and South America, made his début in the United States at the Metropolitan Opera House, Philadelphia, on November 4, 1912, in Verdi's Rigoletto, and his sensational success in Hamlet, Pagliacci, Trovatore, Masked Ball and Rigoletto has caused an unusual demand for his records.

The story of Ruffo's career is a most romantic one. He is a Tuscan by birth, and at an early age entered the Conservatory of Santa Cecilia at Rome, but after two years of study was dismissed by the faculty and advised to seek another profession, the directors declaring that his vocal equipment was inadequate for operatic work! Fortunately for the operatic world, the young man was undismayed, and, still determined upon a musical career, he went to Milan and sought the advice of Signor Cassini, a former artist who made a specialty of vocal training. The latter not only asserted his belief in Ruffo's powers but taught him free, as the young artist had nothing with which to pay his tuition. Subsequently he went to Rio Janeiro, where his first success was made. He then sang in other South American cities, but it was not until he had conquered the Latin Republics that he returned to his native land for a triumph that will ever be memorable, even in that country of extravagant enthusiasm.

Ruffo's voice is a high baritone of amazing fluency and power, combined with a richness of tone and facility of execution that are most unusual. He has a perfect technique and sings with an assurance that arouses intense enthusiasm. He is successful in both dramatic and lyric rôles, and astounds his audiences with the vigor of his portrayal of Hamlet and Tonio, while he charms and amuses them in the lighter music of Barber of Seville.

Ruffo arrived in America on October 28, 1912, and in the course of a chat with the reporters who boarded the vessel, the baritone paid a high tribute to the Victor. When asked who had been his teacher he said: "I have had many teachers, but the best of them all has been the Gramophone. I have learned more from singing for the Victor than in any other way."

SADLER, JOSIE, Comedienne

This popular comedienne is repeating her successes in musical comedy, her droll dialect and amusing songs being features of any production in which she appears.

We have induced Miss Sadler to sing for the Victor several of her best numbers—a funny number about a susceptible husband, whose wife consulted a doctor about him; and a German specialty introducing "Hilda" and a policeman, in which Miss Sadler's unsurpassable "Dutch" dialect has ample scope.

SAMMARCO, G. MARIO, Baritone (Sahm-mar'-koh)

Mario Sammarco was born in Palermo, Sicily, December 13, 1873. His musical studies were pursued under Antonio Cantelli, and he made his operatic début in Milan, 1894, and was then engaged for Giordano's opera, Andrea Chenier, at La Scala.

His great success in this opera established his position, and he has since been in demand, singing in all the chief cities of Europe. The last spring season at Covent Garden, London, was his sixth consecutive engagement in that opera house, where he is a great favorite. Coming to the Manhattan Opera House, New York City, for its first season, he remained during its existence as a home of grand opera, and was a favorite artist last season with the Chicago-Philadelphia Company.

SAMMARCO

Signor Sammarco has a baritone voice of unusual richness and power. He is as much at home on the concert as on the operatic stage, and his first London recital last autumn was a brilliant success. The London Times says of this recital: "Signor Sammarco, who has for long enjoyed a reputation as one of the most distinguished and versatile of living baritones, gave in Bechstein Hall a vocal recital. The programme ranged from Monteverde to Verdi, and included songs as well as airs from operas. The singer was received after each group with very warm applause from a large audience." Sammarco's operatic repertoire is most extensive; among the roles which he sings may be mentioned Falstaff, Iago, Rigoletto, Amonasro, Scarpia, Sharpless, Marcel, Jack Rance and Figaro.

SASSOLI, ADA, Harpist (Sass'-oh-li)

This most romantic and picturesque of musical instruments is often considered to be useful only in the accompanying of songs, but should be pre-eminently a solo instrument.

To make a faithful reproduction of the tones of the harp has long been the ambition of the best recorders in America and Europe, but their labors were in vain until the Victor, after years of experimenting, announced the result of these experiments in a series of beautiful reproductions, by Miss Ada Sassoli, whose artistic playing is familiar to concert-goers. Miss Sassoli's exquisite tone, her mastery of phrasing and amazing technique are perfectly recorded.

SCHUBERT, FRANZ PETER (1797-1828), Compositions by

SCHUBERT

Born near Vienna, 1797. Son of peasant schoolmaster. Boy taught violin and voice by local choirmaster. At 16 wrote 1st Symphony. At 17 began writing songs with remarkable facility—between 17 and 18 wrote 144 songs, including masterpiece, Erlking.

Schubert led a somewhat Bohemian life, never married and was frequently out of funds. Was much underpaid, some of his best songs bringing only 20c. each! Works numerous, including 600 songs, 8 symphonies, several overtures, much piano and chamber music, operas, etc. Schubert was the greatest of all song composers, and really creator of art of song. Also most remarkable of youthful writers. Died 1828, leaving many MSS. valued by officials at $12.50 (!) but which afterward made the fortune of several publishers.

SCHUMANN-HEINK, ERNESTINE, Contralto

COPY'T DUPONT

SCHUMANN-HEINK

Ernestine Schumann-Heink is the most popular and beloved contralto who has ever visited America. Her superb voice and thoroughly artistic singing and acting, as well as her genial personality, have endeared her to audiences everywhere.

Mme. Schumann-Heink is the daughter of Herr Rossler, an Austrian army officer, who at the time of her birth was stationed in Lieben, Bohemia. At the age of ten little Ernestine was sent to the Convent of the Ursuline Nuns in Prague, where she sang in the choir, but entirely by ear. Her father was afterward transferred to Graz, where a teacher named Marietta von Le Clair, who had recognized the signs which told of a voice worth cultivating, kindly offered to give the budding genius her best efforts without pay. The girl's voice at that time was a deep contralto, with no high notes. The wise teacher kept her on nothing but exercises for two years before she gave her songs by Mendelssohn, Schubert and other composers. Her first appearance in New York was in 1898, and she was such a great success that American audiences refused to allow her to return to Germany. She has now taken up her residence here and has become an American citizeness, making only short trips to Europe to fill special engagements.

This singer's capacity for work is simply phenomenal, and her record of 1904, when she made ninety-two appearances in four and one-half months, is still remembered as a feat unequaled by any prima donna.

But the engagements which interest the largest number of persons are those which the great contralto fills in the Victor Laboratory. Large as her audiences always are, they would seem small indeed compared to the great public she sings to by means of the Victor.

The records by this artist which we present are superb in quality and are pronounced to be perfect reproductions of one of the most glorious and sympathetic of true contralto voices.

Mme. Schumann-Heink, desiring that her records should be as nearly perfect as possible, and worthy of her great reputation, has signed an exclusive agreement with the Victor Company.

SCOTTI, ANTONIO, Baritone

SCOTTI

One of the most valued and gifted artists of the Metropolitan Opera Company is Antonio Scotti, the well-known baritone. He was born in Naples, and even as a child showed a desire to become a singer. His parents, however, little dreamed as they heard him humming Italian melodies in his home that a great career lay before him. After receiving the customary Italian education, he was for a time put in commercial pursuits. But when he should have been poring over his ledger, too often he was singing the romanzas of the day or trying to recall scraps of opera which he had heard the evening before. His friends strongly advised him to study music, and he was induced to consult Mme. Trifari-Paganini, who assured him he had an exceptionally good voice, and urged him to cultivate it. He at last yielded, though with little hope of ever becoming an artist. At the age of 23, after he had studied for four years, he made his début at the Teatro Reale, in Malta, as Amonasro in Aïda, singing later at that house in nine other rôles.

Scotti's career was now open to him. He sang in turn in many of the great theatres of Italy and filled six seasons in South America. Engagements at the Teatro Reale, Madrid, and in St. Petersburg, Moscow, Warsaw and Odessa, established his reputation.

His London début was made as Don Giovanni, under the management of Mr. Grau, who at once engaged him for the Metropolitan. Since that time he has been a constant visitor to America, where he has won fame in many parts, notably as Don Giovanni, Scarpia, Tonio and Amonasro. Scotti's impressive Scarpia is one of his most famous impersonations, while as Falstaff he recently achieved an artistic triumph.

Signor Scotti, who sings exclusively for the Victor, has made a number of very fine solo records, besides singing in many duets and other concerted numbers with other artists.

COPY'T DUPONT

SEMBRICH

Sembrich was the daughter of a poor musician of Lemberg, in Gallicia, but afterwards adopted her mother's maiden name, which was Sembrich. Her father began to teach her to play the piano and violin when she was but four years old, and at twelve she was obliged to play the piano for dances in order to help support the family. Her musical gifts were noticed by a benevolent Pole named Lanowich, who sent her first to the Loepel Conservatory, then to Vienna, where Professor Epstein discovered the natural beauty of her voice, and advised her to take up voice culture.

Her début was made as Elvira, June 3, 1877, at Athens; and she was then engaged for the Dresden opera in 1878. In 1880 she sang Leonora at Covent Garden and her success being assured, engagements in Warsaw, St. Petersburg, Moscow and Madrid followed.

In 1883 she was engaged for the Metropolitan Opera House, making her American début October 24th, in Lucia, afterwards singing Elvira, Violetta and Ophelia. As soon as the public realized that here was the perfect singer at last, her triumphs were phenomenal—such perfection of style and beauty of tone, combined with that power of interpretation which is one of her greatest gifts, won the plaudits of audiences and critics alike.

Although Madame Sembrich may never appear in opera again, her admirers of today and those of future generations may still hear her delivery of the great operatic airs, which are imperishably recorded by the Victor.

SIROTA, CANTOR G., with Warsaw Synogogue Choir

This famous Cantor, who has no equal among singers of his profession, is a Rabbi of the Temple at Warsaw, Poland, the largest and most magnificent of all Jewish houses of worship. Sirota's recent tour called for a limited number of concerts in the largest cities only, and at these American appearances thousands were turned away, unable to gain admission.

The Victor records of Cantor Sirota have made his voice familiar to Jewish circles in America, and many others not of the Hebrew race possess these wonderful reproductions in their collections.

(Other Sirota records will be found in the Victor Hebrew Catalogue.) Sirota sings exclusively for the Victor.

INTERIOR OF SISTINE CHAPEL, ROME

SISTINE CHOIR RECORDS—of Music in use before the "Motu Proprio"

This style of music was recently in vogue not only in Rome, but throughout the world, and it might be said that there were no church solemnities without sacred music of masters such as Capocci, Battaglia, Aldega and others. When Pope Pius X issued his "Motu Proprio" on sacred music, music of this kind was interdicted in all church functions, and may now be heard only in concert-rooms or colleges.

The Victor was fortunate enough to secure a number of records by the Sistine Choir before the Pope's order went into effect, and now offers Americans an opportunity of hearing this most famous of religious singing bodies. Among these records are several solos by Prof. Moreschi, the famous male soprano, now more than sixty years of age. (For Gregorian music see Gregorian Records.)

SLEZAK, LEO, Tenor

SLEZAK

This artist is now pronounced to be one of the greatest of tenors, and such was his popularity abroad that only with the utmost difficulty was permission obtained from the management of the Royal Opera, Vienna, for him to fill a season in America.

Slezak has been called the second Tamagno, and with good reason, as he possesses not only a splendid voice, but is a really great actor as well. His recent appearances as Otello caused the critics to be enthusiastic in his praise.

The Victor Company was the first to bring out records of this great tenor, having issued several selections in advance of his first appearance at the Metropolitan.

SOUSA'S BAND—John Philip Sousa, Conductor

NOTE.—The Sousa's Band records will be found under "Band Records" and "Dance Records."

Sousa's Band is acknowledged to be one of the finest concert bands in the world, and has delighted millions of hearers, not only in America but throughout the countries visited by the band during its five triumphal tours of Europe. Many fine records by this famous band are in the Victor lists, including a superb series of the Sousa marches, the most successful of all musical compositions, more than six million copies having been sold, netting their composer the greatest royalty ever paid an American composer. They are popular in every country on the globe, and are played by twenty thousand bands in the United States alone.

The Victor has for more than twelve years possessed the exclusive right to issue disc records of Sousa's Band, and this agreement has recently been renewed for the thirteenth year.

No disc record can be a genuine Sousa Band record unless it bears the Victor trade mark.

SPENCER, JANET, Contralto

COPY'T DOVER ST. STUDIOS

SPENCER

The Victor announces with much pleasure the exclusive engagement of the American contralto, Janet Spencer, whose beautiful voice has delighted concert and oratorio audiences for some years past.

Miss Spencer was born in Boston, where she studied with the best teachers before going abroad. Several years of hard work and serious study in London and Paris followed, and at her début in New York the young singer made a profound impression; the critics unanimously praising her beautiful voice, fine diction and artistic phrasing.

After several seasons of oratorio and concert engagements, this artist began a series of New York concerts, and the character of her reception at these recitals made it certain that an annual concert will be expected in future. Miss Spencer's first Victor records are very fine ones, being absolutely faithful reproductions of her lovely voice.

TAMAGNO, Francesco, Tenor (Tahm-mahn'-yoh)

On August 31, 1905, at the age of 54, this famous artist, the greatest tenor of his time, died at Varese, Italy.

Tamagno was the son of a rural inn-keeper near Turin, and to his active out-door life he doubtless owed his wonderful physique—that great chest and iron throat which produced the wonderful robusto tones that are still remembered.

TAMAGNO

Though this great singer has passed away, we can still hear that matchless voice, thanks to science, which has made it possible to record it imperishably. Delightful as it is for one's own diversion to bring back the true record and ring of a voice that is far away, how much stranger, how much more extraordinary it seems when we are able to recall from the world of shadows the sound of a voice that is still!

Records of this famous artist are issued only by the Victor Company, Tamagno having agreed not to sing for any other company during his lifetime.

TANNHAUSER (Tahn'-hoy-zer)

Words and music by Richard Wagner. First presented Dresden, 1845; Paris, 1861; London, 1876; New York, 1859.

Tannhäuser, with its poetry, romance and passion; its characters, who are real human beings and not mysterious mythological gods, goddesses and heroes, appeals strongly to the average opera-goer. The story tells of conflict between two kinds of love: true love of the highest human kind as distinguished from mere sensuous passion; and relates how the higher and purer love triumphed in the end.

Tannhäuser, a knight and minstrel, in an evil moment, succumbs to the wiles of Venus and dwells for a year in the Venusberg. Tiring of these monotonous delights, he leaves the goddess and returns to his home, where he is warmly received and told that the fair Elizabeth, niece of the Landgrave, still mourns for him. He is urged to compete in the Tournament of Song not far distant, the prize being the hand of Elizabeth. The theme of the contest is The Nature of Love, and when Tannhäuser's turn arrives the evil influence of the Venusberg is apparent when he delivers a wild and profane eulogy of passion. Outraged by this insult, the minstrels draw their swords to slay him, but Tannhäuser is protected by Elizabeth, who pleads for his life. Coming to his senses, too late, he repents, and when a company of Pilgrims pass on their way to Rome, he joins them to seek pardon for his sin. In the last act we see Elizabeth, weary and worn, supported by the noble Wolfram, who also loves her, watching for the Pilgrims to return, but Tannhäuser is not among them. Elizabeth is overcome with disappointment and feebly returns to her home.

Tannhäuser now appears, in a wretched plight, on his way to re-enter the Hill of Venus. He tells Wolfram that he appealed to the Pope for pardon, but was told that his redemption was as impossible as that the Pope's staff should put forth leaves. Wolfram's remonstrances are in vain, and Tannhäuser is about to invoke the goddess, when a chant is heard and the Pilgrims appear, announcing that the Pope's staff had blossomed as a sign that the sinner was forgiven. Tannhäuser kneels in prayer as the mourners pass with the body of Elizabeth, who, overcome by her bitter disappointment, had suddenly passed away.

TERRY, ELLEN ALICIA, Actress

TERRY

The Victor announces a series of Shakespearean selections by one of the most famous of living actresses, Ellen Terry. This artist was born in 1848 at Coventry, England, her parents being well-known actors. Her first appearance on the stage was made at the age of eight in "A Winter's Tale." After several years with various stock organizations, she joined Henry Irving's company, playing Katherine in "Taming of the Shrew," and thus began the long association with this great actor which terminated only at his death in 1905.

Miss Terry has recited for the Victor portions of the works in which she has made her greatest successes, and the series forms a most interesting souvenir of this noted actress.

TETRAZZINI, LUISA, Soprano (Tet-trah-tzee'-nee)

COPY'T KIRKLAND
TETRAZZINI

Mme. Tetrazzini has made one of the greatest successes in operatic history in this country, and has met with a reception almost unparalleled. The great Manhattan and Metropolitan Opera Houses in New York have been crowded every time the famous soprano has appeared, and she has been greeted with a series of tremendous ovations. It is not the habit of blasé New York audiences to go wild over a singer, but the Tetrazzini performances have been the scenes of some most remarkable outbursts of enthusiasm.

It is but eight years since the management of the Tivoli Opera House in San Francisco first brought Tetrazzini to the attention of the English-speaking world. Other countries had already discovered in her work qualities of extreme excellence; but it remained for San Francisco to make her "world famous." Her triumphs in London, New York and elsewhere are too well known to require further mention.

Tetrazzini's last tour, embracing twenty of the largest cities, was a succession of ovations. It is a wonderful voice with which this great soprano is electrifying her audiences; remarkable in its purity and great range, while her colorature work is extremely brilliant.

It is perhaps enough to say here that this marvelous voice has been recorded in all its beauty and power on these twenty-nine superb Victor records, and the list contains all the numbers with which Mme. Tetrazzini has made her greatest triumphs.

Mme. Tetrazzini makes records exclusively for the Victor.

THAT GIRL QUARTET—Women's Voices

For some unknown reason a successful woman's quartet is one of the rarest of novelties. (Some mere man has said it is because they can never agree who shall be the star!) The Victor, however, has discovered an organization which has achieved a well-deserved success, and now offers a series of records of popular and standard quartets. The Victor was the first to record successfully a quartet of women's voices, and these reproductions have set a new standard.

TRAVIATA, LA (Trah-veeah'-tah) Sung in Italian unless otherwise noted.

Opera in three acts; libretto by Piave, founded on Dumas' Lady of the Camelias; music by Verdi. First presented Venice, 1853; London, 1856; New York, 1856.

Traviata, is one of the most beautiful works of its class, and is full of lovely melodies; while the story of the unfortunate Violetta has caused many tears to be shed by sympathetic listeners. The plot, being quite familiar, will be but briefly sketched here. Violetta, a courtesan of Paris, is holding a brilliant revel in her home. Among the guests is a young man from Provence, Alfred, who is in love with Violetta, and after much persuasion, the spoiled beauty agrees to leave her gay life and retire with him to an humble apartment near Paris. After a few brief months of happiness the lovers are discovered by Alfred's father, who pleads with Violetta to release his son from his promises. She yields for his sake, and resumes her former life in Paris. Alfred, not knowing the real cause of her desertion, seeks her out and publicly insults her. Too late he discovers the sacrifice Violetta has made, and when he returns, full of remorse, he finds her dying.

TROVATORE (Troh-vah-toh'-reh) Sung in Itolion unless otherwise noted.

Opera in four acts; words by Cammanaro, the story being suggested by a Spanish drama of the same name; music by Verdi. First produced at Rome, 1853; Paris, 1854; London, 1855; New York, 1855. The scene is laid in Biscay and Arragon in the fifteenth century.

Many years previous to the opening of the story the mother of Azucena, an old gypsy, had been burned as a witch by the father of the present Count di Luna, and Azucena, to revenge her mother's death, stole the young brother of the Count and brought him up as her son under the name of Manrico. He becomes a Troubadour and gains the love of Leonora, who is also beloved by the Count.

In Act I the rival suitors, in an effort to see Leonora, meet and a duel takes place, but Manrico generously spares the Count's life. Act II opens in the gypsy camp, where Manrico, under the care of Azucena, is recovering from a recent wound. He learns that Leonora, thinking him dead, is about to take the veil, and that the Count intends to abduct her. He hastens to her and after an encounter in the Convent, Leonora is rescued. In the third act the lovers are finally about to be united, but Manrico suddenly learns that Azucena is in the power of the Count and condemned to be burned, and in his attempt to release her he is also captured by di Luna. In the last act Leonora, to save Manrico, offers to wed the Count, but takes poison as soon as the order of release is signed. Discovering this, the Count orders Manrico to instant execution, but just as the Troubadour dies the gypsy, Azucena, reveals to di Luna that he has killed his own brother.

TURNER, ALAN, Baritone

TURNER

Mr. Turner has become a great favorite with Victor customers through the fine series of standard songs and opera airs he has made for us. This baritone's range is a remarkable one, his upper notes being particularly pure and clear.

The selections which this singer has made—Irish ballads, English patriotic airs, sacred songs and opera songs in English—are all rendered with dignity and artistic finish.

Mr. Turner has just paid a brief visit to America to fill a short engagement with the Philadelphia-Chicago Opera Company, and his fine impersonations of Valentine and the Toreador were much enjoyed by opera-goers.

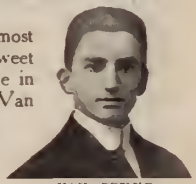
VAN BRUNT, WALTER, Tenor



VAN BRUNT

Mr. Van Brunt has become in a very short time one of the most popular of the ballad tenors who make records for the Victor. His sweet tenor, remarkable enunciation and taking style are much in evidence in the series of reproductions listed below. As will be seen, Mr. Van Brunt not only sings ballads well, but essays a comedy selection now and then, which is always cleverly rendered—as a hearing of this singer's "Railroad Rag" or "Society Bear" will show.

VANCE, CLARICE, Comedienne

VANCE

One of the greatest favorites of the vaudeville stage to-day is Clarice Vance. Unassuming, quiet, dignified and clever; possessed of a droll humor and a sly method of expression that are simply irresistible, she is in a class by herself with her clear-cut delivery of popular "coon" songs. Miss Vance has made us several records which are absolute reproductions of her voice and droll mannerisms.

VAN EWEYK, ARTHUR, Lieder Singer

VAN EWEYK

This Dutch-American baritone, whose annual visits to America are among the events of each season, has made a number of favorite German lieder for the Victor, and the first ten of these are presented. Mr. Van Eweyk, well known in Europe as one of the foremost oratorio and lieder singers, has made his home in Berlin for the last nineteen years and for fifteen years has been engaged in concert work, appearing each season in Berlin and other musical centres of Europe.

This singer's beautiful voice, admirable diction and fine delivery are amply shown in the Schumann, Loewe, Beethoven, Bungert and Schnabel numbers he has made for the Victor. In the making of these records Mr. Van Eweyk was assisted by that sterling pianist, Mr. Charles Albert Baker, of New York, who has provided some unusually sympathetic and finished accompaniments.

VERDI, FORTUNIO GIUSEPPE FRANCESCO (Vair'-dee)

VERDI

Born 1813, near Roncole, Italy. Parents, though poor inn-keepers, gave him spinet lessons from parish organist. At 10 succeeded his teacher at church organ. Boy became so popular that village sent him to Milan for further study, where director of Conservatory refused scholarship because of lack of talent! (Many years after, this same institution was renamed Cons. di Giuseppi Verdi in Verdi's honor.) Then studied with Lavigna, returning to Roncole to marry Sirta Barezzi. Settled permanently in Milan 1836. First op., Bonifacio, produced 1839, followed by Giormo di Regno, a failure. Death of wife and two children stopped composition until 1842, when Nabucco was produced with great success. Others following in quick succession were: Lombardi, 1843; Ernani, 1844; Rigoletto, 1851; Trovatore and Traviata, 1853; Masked Ball, 1857; Forza del Destino, 1862; Don Carlos, 1867; Aida, 1875; Requiem, 1874; Otello, 1887. After silence of 7 years, Verdi astonished the world by producing his Falstaff a wonderful production for a man of 80. The composer died in 1901.

Verdi was one of the greatest of opera composers, and one of the most prolific. The Victor has issued more than two hundred selections from Verdi's operas, which will be found under the various opera headings. Several of the operas are virtually complete.

VESSELLA'S ITALIAN BAND (Ves-sel'-lah)

VESSELLA

A Victor announcement of unusual interest is the engagement of this dashing director and his famous Italian Band of soloists, whose annual season in Atlantic City is one of the events of that popular Mecca for pleasure seekers. As a conductor, Signor Vessella is vigorous and picturesque, without being unduly fantastic; and his control over his band is a remarkable one—such precision and such shading being quite unusual even in this day of fine military band organizations. Vessella makes records exclusively for the Victor.

VIAFORA, GINA C., Soprano

VIAFORA

Mme. Viafora, who in private life is the wife of the famous caricaturist, was a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company for several years, and was one of the most promising of the younger prima donne in that organization. Her voice is fresh and youthful, with much natural beauty and has ample range and power. She has selected for her first Victor engagement the charming Musetta Waltz from Bohême and airs from Manon and Trovatore, which she has sung with ease and extremely good intonation.

VICTOR OPERA COMPANY

The series of Victor operatic medleys is the most popular, the most costly and the best selling feature ever introduced by the Victor. These medleys have, of course, been extensively imitated, but the fine singing organization which the Victor controls exclusively and the Victor process of recording make the records absolutely beyond competition.

More than seventy operettas and grand operas have been treated in this novel fashion, and Mr. Rogers' skill in combining the most attractive bits of these musical works is most remarkable.

VIENNA QUARTET, THE

(Violin, flute, piano, 'cello)

The Vienna Quartet records have been warmly greeted by lovers of good music. The playing of the Quartet is a fine example of the spirit and finish that can be put into popular music and the lighter classics when properly played.

Many notable composers and critics have heard and admired the work of this organization, and have expressed their pleasure in no uncertain manner. The constant association of the players during the many years they have been together has given them a perfection of ensemble and a beauty of style which is most delightful.

WAGNER, RICHARD (Valg'-ner) (For records of Wagner compositions see "Flying Dutchman," "Dream of Wagner," "Götterdämmerung," "Lohengrin," "Meistersinger," "Parsifal," "Rheingold," "Siegfried," "Tannhauser," "Tristan und Isolde," "Walküre.")

WAGNER

Born Leipsic, 1813. Son of Law Court clerk, afterward Chief of Police. When 6 father died—mother married Geyer, actor, moved Dresden, where Richard took piano lessons, and heard Weber's Freischutz, which made deep impression. At age 13 Geyer died, family returned Leipsic. At 16 heard Egmont and decided on musical career. First attempts at composition string quartets. Was poor piano pupil, and sang badly, but had thorough training in counterpoint from Weinlig. In 1832 wrote overture (performed at Gewandhaus), in 1833 a symphony. First opera begun, "The Wedding," 1832, destroyed unfinished. In 1834 director of Magdeburg Opera, wrote Das Liebesverbot, afterward failure. In 1836 married Mina Planer, actress. (Separated 1862 and married divorced wife of Von Bülow.) In 1837 conductor at Riga, Russia, where he began Rienzi. Theatre failed, and leaving many debts sailed for London in small vessel. During stormy voyage conceived idea of Tristan and Flying Dutchman. Not successful London, went Paris, spent several years in obscurity and poverty, writing dance music, etc. In 1842, through influence Meyerbeer, Rienzi was produced in Dresden, and with such success that Flying Dutchman soon followed. These operas greeted with mingled abuse and praise, and launched the most celebrated and protracted controversy in musical history. Appointed chapel master Dresden Opera 1843. Tannhauser produced 1845. In 1849 involved in revolution and fled to Switzerland. Remained 3 years idle, then began Niebelungen Ring. Returned Germany 1861. Tristan abandoned in Vienna as "unsingable" after 57 rehearsals, but afterward produced. Increasing financial troubles relieved by assistance from King Ludwig of Bavaria. Bayreuth Opera House opened 1876, and pronounced the ideal theatre. Last opera Parsifal produced Bayreuth 1882. Wagner went Venice, Italy, for health and died there 1883.

Wagner's wonderful music dramas revolutionized modern opera music, and their vogue is continually extending. Victor list of Wagner compositions gradually increasing, and those now issued wonderful examples of the perfection of Victor recording.

WEBER, CARL MARIA (Voy'-ber)

WEBER

Born Eutin, Germany, 1786. Family very musical. Weber taught by mother, opera singer, and father, fine musician. At 10, pupil of Heuschkel and choir boy at Salsburg. Moved Munich, published first composition, set of fugues, then a mass, and at 12 wrote an opera never produced. At 13 his opera Waldmadchen was sung. After further study appointed conductor Breslau Theatre. At 18 Musik-Intendant to Duke of Wurtemberg. After period of fast living was imprisoned and banished for selling court appointment. Went Darmstadt, produced two operas, then after concert tour engaged to reorganize Prague opera. Married Caroline Brandt, actress. Freischütz, greatest opera, produced 1821 with immense success. In 1825, although warned against English climate, he went to London to produce his operas and died there 1826. In spite of early wildness, was afterward model husband and father. Weber considered father of German opera, and was creator of the Romantic school, of which his Freischütz, 1821, Euryanthe, 1823, and Oberon, 1826, are good examples.

WELLS, JOHN BARNES, Tenor

WELLS

Mr. Wells, who is a native of Pennsylvania, first became known as a singer while at Syracuse University, where he took a prominent part in the musical life of the college. On his graduation he was secured by the Brick Presbyterian Church of East Orange, always noted for its fine choir. New York soon discovered Mr. Wells, and he was promptly captured by the Madison Avenue M. E. Church, when his concert career may be said to have begun.

The audiences who hear this young singer are always in complete sympathy with him, not only because of his lovely voice and the charm of his singing, but because of the clearness of his enunciation, which enables every word to be heard, and these unusual qualities are fully apparent in the numbers he has sung for the Victor.

WERRENRATH, REINALD, Baritone

WERRENRATH

It is with pleasure that the Victor announces an arrangement which enables it to present records by this well-known baritone. Mr. Werrenrath has a splendid voice, well controlled, and sings a wide variety of music with intelligence and good taste. The baritone's annual recitals in New York always call forth much praise from the critics, who unanimously pronounce Mr. Werrenrath to be one of the most satisfactory singers now before the public.

This artist has made for the Victor a fine list of standard solos, besides many duets with other voices. (See "Duets.")

Mr. Werrenrath sings exclusively for the Victor.

WHEELER, ELIZABETH, Soprano

A soprano who can give a song the proper expression and yet pronounce the words distinctly is a rare discovery. In Mrs. Wheeler the Victor presents a soprano whose diction is really remarkable; and this fact is quite evident in the records she has made.

After hearing Mrs. Wheeler's first records, the Victor Company at once secured her services for disc work; and she has sung a number of old favorites, besides several of the popular ballads and many duets, both sacred and secular, with Mr. Wheeler, the soprano and tenor blending in most attractive style.

WHITEHILL, CLARENCE, Baritone

WHITEHILL

A recent announcement of much interest is the exclusive engagement by the Victor of the famous American bass-baritone, Clarence Whitehill.

Mr. Whitehill hails from the West, having been born in Marengo, Iowa. He took such a keen interest in music that at the age of 19 he went to Chicago to begin studying in earnest. He sang in several Chicago churches with some success, and then went abroad for serious study.

His début was made at Brussels in 1900 as Friar Laurence in Romeo. He returned to Paris for a season at the Opéra Comique, and was then secured by Mr. Savage for the English opera season at the Metropolitan in 1901. Returning to Europe in the spring of that year, he began on the advice of Mme. Wagner, to study German opera. The next five years were divided between the Cologne opera and the Covent Garden season, where he alternated with Van Rooy, and in 1909 he was engaged by Mr. Dippel for the Metropolitan.

Mr. Whitehill is not only a splendid singer but a finished actor, and his impersonations of Wolfram, Wotan and Amfórtas have called forth high praise from the critics.

WHITNEY BROS. QUARTET

WHITNEY BROTHERS QUARTET

This fine organization, which is composed of four brothers, is quite well known to patrons of the various Lyceum courses, and the brothers have thousands of admirers, especially throughout the Middle West.

It is rare to find in one family four gifted sons; and rarer still to find four with voices so placed that they can assume the several parts in a male quartet. The Whitney Brothers sing both classical and popular songs in a most artistic manner, and in their concerts give an entire evening's programme without other assistance.

WILLIAMS, EVAN, Tenor

COPY'T DUPONT

WILLIAMS

The public is to be congratulated on the engagement by the Victor of this great American tenor, whose popularity is widespread throughout the country. His voice is now at its best, and its beautiful quality, as well as the exquisite phrasing of which he is such a master, are much in evidence in this comprehensive list of selections.

Mr. Williams was born in Ohio, of Welsh parents, as his name denotes. He is immensely popular in the United States, and his reputation having extended into England by means of his fine Victor records, he is now a great favorite there, and has made several successful concert tours of that country.

There are few tenor voices that give one such a sense of satisfaction as Mr. Williams'. No matter how sustained and intense a song may be, his voice displays a fresh beauty of tone that is remarkable.

The tenor's list is composed mainly of English ballads, but includes several opera airs in English and a number of oratorio selections. Mr. Williams sings exclusively for the Victor.

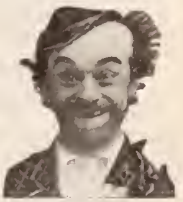
WILLS, NAT M., Comedian



WILLS AS A TRAMP

No entertainer on the American stage to-day is more popular with the public than Nat Wills. His familiar impersonation of a tramp is unique and always amusing, without a touch of offensiveness or vulgarity. His stories and monologues are so witty and laugh-compelling that one suspects they are written, like his parodies, by himself—and he never fails to make the most of them.

Mr. Wills may be said to have a voice created for record-making, so powerful and resonant is his rich baritone; and the distinctness with which he gives every syllable of his talks and songs is of course known to everyone. The records which we offer are remarkable in every respect, and so natural that it would be impossible to distinguish between the reproduction and his actual voice.

WITHERSPOON, HERBERT, Bass

WITHERSPOON

The Victor Company is now able to offer to its patrons a number of fine records by one of the most successful of American bassos, whose superb work with the Metropolitan Opera has deepened the impression already made by him in concert. Mr. Witherspoon is a singer of intelligence, with a voice and style of unusual beauty. He has an impressive stage presence, distinguished bearing and much personal magnetism. His voice is of ample range, exceptionally well schooled and noble in quality, and he is a master in the art of phrasing.

Mr. Witherspoon's list is made up of a number of difficult oratorio airs, which he sings smoothly and accurately; two settings of Kipling's verses, including the effective "Mother o' Mine," which is delivered with pathos and intensity of feeling; several English ballads and fine airs from unfamiliar operas which make most interesting records. Mr. Witherspoon sings exclusively for the Victor.

ZEROLA

Nicola Zerola was born in Naples in 1876. At an early age he began working seriously for an operatic career. After training his voice at the famous conservatory of his native city and under the best private masters, Zerola made his début as Canio at Trieste. His success was instantaneous and engagements quickly followed for the leading theatres of Italy.

In the autumn of 1909 he appeared in New York with a company at the Academy of Music, and made such a success that he was engaged for the Manhattan. The tenor is this season singing in Italy.

ZIMBALIST, EFREM, Violinist

ZIMBALIST

The Victor has added another famous virtuoso to its list of celebrated players—the young Russian, Efrem Zimbalist, who has created such a stir on the continent, in Great Britain and America. Born at Rostoff on the Don in 1890, he began to study the violin at the age of eight, and at seventeen he completed his musical education under Leopold Auer. His début at St. Petersburg was sensational, and his subsequent tours through Germany, England and America have earned for him a place among the first violinists of the day.

How to Get the Best Results from your Victor!

Some Simple Rules Which Should Be Observed

It seems almost unnecessary to say to Victor customers "Use only good needles" or "don't use any needle more than once," and "don't play records at various speeds," yet many people are careless in this respect.

Victor Records are made with the greatest care, and if properly played will last indefinitely. It is the desire of the Victor Company that its customers shall keep their records in the finest possible condition. To aid in this result a set of rules have been compiled which every customer is urged to read and follow.

1. All Records Should Be Played at a Speed of 78

Every Victor record is recorded at this speed and therefore requires a speed of seventy-eight to reproduce it properly.

Set the regulator so that the turntable of your Victor revolves seventy-eight times per minute, and never change it unless for some special purpose, as when using records for dancing to suit the exact taste of the dancers. And don't depend entirely on the regulator, but test the speed occasionally by placing a slip of paper under the edge of the record, and while it is playing, count the number of times the paper revolves in one minute.

You will, of course, meet the man who insists on turning the regulator of his Victor up and down, thus changing the speed with each record he plays. Don't imitate him—he is wrong. Only at a speed of seventy-eight can you hear the actual tones of the singer just as they were recorded.

2. Use Only Needles That You Know to Be Good.

There are very many bad needles sold throughout the country—some cheap in price, others which are sold for the price of good needles. The point frequently breaks off with the first few revolutions, leaving a jagged and rough tip, which cuts into the lines and damages the record. The safest plan is to use only Victor needles, which are made of the finest material.

3. Never Use a Needle More Than Once.

Now many of you will say "why, everybody knows that!" Well, nearly everybody does and yet needles are used more than once, and the record is damaged. There are several ways that this mistake can be made—one of which is to forget whether the needle has been changed or not and "guess" that it has! To avoid this always change the needle first, before taking off the record. And if you are in doubt about it, then change it anyway, to be sure. Then sometimes used and unused needles are kept in boxes which look much alike, and a needle is absent-mindedly taken from the wrong box! Always put used needles in a holder from which they cannot be readily picked up; such as the compartment for used needles in the regular Victor needle box, or an old-fashioned safety glass ink well.

4. Don't Try to Drop the Needle Into the First Record Line

If you do, it is likely to make a hole, and you will hear a little "tick" when the needle passes over the spot. Start the instrument and in two or three seconds, when it is running at full speed, carefully lower the box so that the needle rests on the smooth outside rim of the disc; then push it gently toward the center and it will glide into the first line of the record.

5. If the Reproduction Sounds Indistinct and Blurred, Stop!

Occasionally a needle will be found which wears off too quickly (a fault extremely rare with Victor Needles) and the record will sound indistinct when only partially played. Don't let it finish playing. Such a reproduction is unpleasant to hear, and the worn needle damages the record. Put on a new needle—it takes but a second.

NEW NEEDLE QUOTATIONS

Victor Needles and Victor Half-Tone Needles are now

5c per 100 and 50c per 1000.

In announcing this reduction, which is made possible by an improved process of manufacturing, we again impress upon every Victor customer the necessity of using only Victor Needles for playing Victor Records. Victor Needles are manufactured to exactly suit the requirements of the grooves of Victor Records, and when the Victor Company advertises: "Always use Victor Machines with Victor Records and Victor Needles — THE COMBINATION. There is no other way to get the unequaled Victor tone"—it states an absolute fact. This advice to the public is sincere, as we simply want Victor customers to use the needles we know are perfectly suited to play Victor Records.

Warning: Beware especially of so-called "indestructible" and "permanent" jewel point needles. Such needles will positively ruin your records. Let us repeat this advice in capital letters: USE ONLY VICTOR NEEDLES, AND NEVER USE ANY NEEDLE MORE THAN ONCE.

Pronouncing Table—Composers, Singers and Operas

The constant appearance of new names in the Victor lists will make this table quite useful. It is not intended to be a complete list, but includes only those names the pronunciation of which is not clear and those difficult to pronounce. The sign (′) denotes the syllable to be accented.

Some Remarks on Pronunciation of Foreign Names and Titles

In most pronouncing dictionaries pronunciations are indicated by symbols such as these: á, ê, ì, etc., and unless these signs are thoroughly memorized, the key list must be consulted for each word, which is most inconvenient. The Victor endeavors to do away with this list, by means of syllables which indicate the approximate pronunciation at a glance, or by using familiar words—using ah for the sound of a as in barn; oh for o as in boat; and ay for a as in ate; and giving the short sound of e (hen) and i (hit) by eh and ih.

Some Sounds Difficult to Indicate

It must be understood, however, that it is quite impossible to give exactly the sound of some foreign letters (such as the French e, and n, or the German w). For instance, the last syllable of Chopin, indicated pang—which is about as near as one can come in English characters,—is pronounced, as some one has said, by commencing to sound the ng', but stopping midway, and closing the back of the throat to throw the sound through the nose.

The French e (as in de) might be indicated deh, but is pronounced with the lips almost closed. Put your lips in position to pronounce oo, as in food, then try to say deh instead, and you will come very near it. The German w (as in Wagner) is neither a w nor a v, but just between them. Begin the word as though it was spelled Vahgner, but instead of pressing the teeth firmly against the lower lip, press them very lightly and then go through the motion of sounding the v.

The editor has indicated these pronunciations as nearly as possible, and they will be found correct enough for practical purposes. But do not pause at each syllable—pronounce the entire word rapidly without hesitation, putting a decided accent on the syllable marked with the sign "′".

Questions, Criticisms, Suggestions or Comment Invited

Inquiries or criticisms regarding pronunciations or any other subject will be welcomed by the Catalogue Editor. This catalogue is for your convenience, and you should feel free to criticise, praise, suggest any composition not already recorded, or ask for information concerning any record listed.
